Commissioner

June 9, 1977

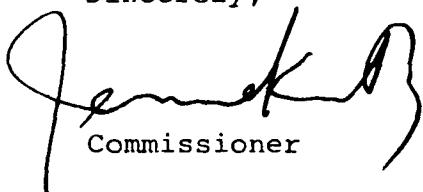

The Honorable W. Michael Blumenthal
Secretary of the Treasury
Washington, D. C. 20220

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As required by section 6108 of the Internal Revenue Code, we have prepared for publication this complete report, Statistics of Income--1974, Business Income Tax Returns. The report presents financial estimates based on samples of returns of sole proprietorships and partnerships with accounting periods ended July 1974 through June 1975.

Classification of the data by industry and measures of business size are regular features of this annual report. For the first time since the 1969 report statistics are shown on selected income and expense items by detailed farm industry.

Sincerely,

James R. Janklow
Commissioner

The statistics in the sole proprietorship section of this report are estimates derived from a stratified sample, selected before audit, of individual income tax returns filed for the 1974 income year. For nearly all taxpayers, the 1974 income year corresponded with the calendar year. A small number, however, reported for noncalendar years which ended during 1974 and 1975.

This section presents statistics for the single-owner businesses whose activities were reported to the Internal Revenue Service on the returns of individuals. These activities encompassed virtually the entire range of unincorporated, one-owner businesses, farms, and professional practices, from large enterprises with many employees and hired managers to the part-time operation in which the owner was the only person involved. For example, the owner of a fleet of taxicabs who conducted a business with the help of a large staff and the person who owned a cab and drove it during spare time to supplement the family income might both be included in the "sole proprietorship" statistics. Excluded were sole proprietorship businesses reported on the returns of the fiduciary agents of estates and trusts; however, very little business activity was involved. For 1974, there were estimated to be 33 thousand fiduciary income tax returns with sole proprietorship data showing a gross profit (business receipts less cost of sales and operations) of $618 million. In contrast, the estimates for sole proprietorships reported on individual income tax returns for 1974 were 10.9 million businesses showing gross profit of $147 billion.

The basis for inclusion in these statistics was that the sole proprietor must have filed an Individual Income Tax Return (Form 1040) including a business or farm schedule (Schedule C or F) or Form 4835 (Farm Rental Income and Expenses) covering a farm, business, or professional practice. Form 4835 provided Schedule F detail on income and expenses which were included in the farm statistics. In table 1.1, farms are subdivided into "farm operators" and "farm landlords." This latter classification reflected a common method of renting farm land, the "crop share" arrangement. In this arrangement, one person supplied the land and perhaps some operating capital and another person operated the farm, paying rent in shares of the resulting crop. For tax purposes, each reported a share of receipts from the sale of the crop and, if such was the arrangement, a share of expenses. The operator always reported his or her share of the receipts and expenses on the farm schedule, Schedule F. Likewise, if the landlord "materially participated" in the operation or management of the farm, the landlord used Schedule F to report his or her share of receipts and expenses. On the other hand, if the landlord did not materially participate in the operation or management of the farm, the landlord reported his or her share of receipts and expenses on Form 4835 and submitted Form 4835 with the rent schedule, Schedule E, of the individual income tax return.

For 1974, a return had to be filed by:

- (a) A single person with gross income of at least $2,050,
- (b) A married couple (or a single person age 65 or older) with gross income of at least $2,800,
- (c) A married couple where one spouse was 65 or older and had combined gross income of at least $3,550,
- (d) A married couple where both spouses were age 65 or older and had combined gross income of at least $4,300,
- (e) A married person (regardless of age) whose spouse was filing a separate return (for example, to obtain a refund of income tax withheld), if that married person had a gross income of $750 or more.

There were two major exceptions to the above filing requirements:

(1) A child being claimed as a dependent on his parents' return had to file if he or she had $750 or more unearned income (for example, dividends, interest, capital gains) and

(2) Sole proprietors not meeting the gross income requirements were still required to file if they had $400 or more income from self-employment (generally, this meant $400 in trade or business profits).

In addition, some sole proprietors filed returns even though not otherwise required, because they elected to pay self-employment tax on farm gross profit or because they were receiving a refund of taxes previously paid.

Generally, a sole proprietor corresponded to a "self-employed" person, although some persons considered self-employed under the Internal Revenue Code were excluded from the statistics, notably business partners and persons not actually engaged in a trade or business such as public officials and clergymen. The statistics also exclude persons engaged in a profession and craftsmen, neither of whom were required to file a Schedule C; for example, the physician on the staff of a medical school and not engaged in an outside practice or the electrician employed by a manufacturing corporation who did not have a part-time business utilizing his or her skills as an electrician.

The identification of a sole proprietorship from tax returns was not always exact. The taxpayer sometimes used Schedule C to report employee business expenses or partnership activity, and sometimes used other parts of the return to report sole proprietorship activity. Such errors were corrected during statistical processing whenever possible; however, not all of them were identifiable, resulting in the incorrect inclusion of a small amount of non-sole proprietorship activity and the exclusion of some legitimate sole proprietorship activity. These taxpayer reporting errors particularly affected the industry "Direct selling establishments" which includes door-to-door selling and selling merchandise at parties in private homes.

Chart 1A shows the ranking of the ten leading sole proprietorship activities by business receipts and number of businesses for 1974 and compares the actual values for 1973 and 1974. Chart 1B shows a summary of some of the detail from table 1.6 for sole proprietors in some of the larger or more profitable industries.

Industrial Activity by State

Tables 1.4 and 1.5 show sole proprietorship data classified by the State shown in the mailing address of the proprietor's return. This was usually the State where the proprietor lived, though a few proprietors used other addresses, such as business offices, the office of the practitioners who prepared their returns, or post office boxes. With the limitation that a few proprietorship businesses were not located in the State the proprietor gave as the mailing address or operated in more than one State, the data in tables 1.4 and 1.5 represent estimates of sole proprietorship business activity in each State.

Table 1.4 provides data classified by detailed industry groups for the more populous States. Estimates for all States are presented in table 1.5. In order to achieve greater statistical reliability for the small- and medium-size States, industries were combined so that there are fewer industry groups in table 1.5 than in table 1.4.

Business and Nonbusiness Income

Table 1.6 shows data from the proprietors' Form 1040 individual income tax returns and their related business and farm Schedules C and F, cross-classified by size of the adjusted gross income from the Form 1040 and the industrial activity shown on the Schedules C and F.

Some proprietors owned two or more businesses in different industries, and this complicates the presentation of the data in table 1.6. Adjusted gross income and the other data from Form 1040 for these proprietors were included in each industry in which they had a business, thus duplicating the return data from industry to industry. This made it difficult to construct "unduplicated" totals, and, for this reason, totals and subtotals are provided for only the "all industries" total, the industrial divisions, and "farms."

An "all industries" total containing no duplication of return data is given, but the components of adjusted gross income have a different meaning from the same figures in a particular industry. For an industry or an industrial division, "Other income" means all income included in adjusted gross income except for profits from businesses in that industry. For example, if a proprietor owned both a field crop farm and a grocery store, the return, adjusted gross income, and tax would be included in the table three times. Under field crop farms and total farms, "Other income" would include the profit (or loss) from the grocery store, and under grocery stores, "Other income" would include the profit (or loss) from the field crop farm. In the "all industries" total, however, the return data are included only once; "Net profit less loss" includes the profits (or losses) from both businesses, and "Other income" includes only nonbusiness income such as from investments or salaries.

There are many joint returns in table 1.6 which also creates difficulties in analyzing the data. If, for example, a joint return were filed by a husband who was the proprietor of a business and by a wife who worked, the return would be included in the data with the husband's business income and the couple's combined adjusted gross income. On the other hand, if the same couple had filed separate returns, only the husband's adjusted gross income would have been included.

Farm Proprietorships

Table 1.7 shows three sources of other farm income and two expense items from Schedule F, Farm Income and Expenses, or Form 4835, Farm Rental Income and Expenses: (a) agricultural program payments, (b) commodity credit loans, and (c) patronage dividends; (d) conservation expenses and (e) land clearing expenses.

Agricultural program payments were comprised of all Government payments, whether received in cash, materials, or services. Government payments included those for approved conservation practices, improvements such as for pollution control, approved forestry practices (such as the planting of trees), and disaster payments. Commodity credit loans represented loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation on commodities which were pledged as collateral. Taxpayers could elect to include the loan as income either in the year the proceeds of the loan were actually received or in the year the commodity was finally sold. Patronage dividends received from farmers' cooperatives included dividends, rebates, and refunds paid to patrons on the basis of their patronage.

Conservation expenses included expenditures for the leveling and terracing of earth; construction of drainage and irrigation ditches, earthen dams, and ponds; eradication of brush; and planting of windbreaks. The deduction for conservation expenses was limited to 25 percent of gross income from farming. Besides conservation expenses, amounts spent for clearing land to make it suitable for farming were also deductible. This deduction was limited to the lesser of 25 percent of taxable income from farming, or $5,000.

(* Estimate is not shown separately because of the small number of sample returns on which it was based. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

This is the standard error of the estimate expressed as a percentage of the estimate. These percentages, when added to and subtracted from the estimates in columns 1 through 7 to which they refer, give the range within which approximately two out of three such estimates from similar samples would be expected to fall.

(*) Estimate is not shown separately because of the small number of sample returns on which it was based. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

¹ This is the standard deviation of the estimate expressed as a percent of the estimate. The standard deviation when added to and subtracted from the estimate in columns 1 through 8 to which it refers, gives the range within which approximately two out of three such estimates from similar samples would be expected to fall.² Less than 0.05 percent.

(*) Estimate is not shown separately because of the small number of sample returns on which it was based. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

This is the standard error of the estimate expressed as a percentage of the estimate. These percentages, when added to and subtracted from the estimates in columns 1 through 5 to which they refer, give the range within which approximately two out of three such estimates from similar samples would be expected to fall.

NOTE: United States total excludes returns with Puerto Rican and foreign addresses.

The statistics in the partnership section of this report are estimates derived from a stratified sample, selected before audit, of partnership returns of income filed for the 1974 income year. The 1974 income year was defined to include accounting periods which ended July 1974 through July 1975. About 1.1 million partnership returns were filed for this period.

The statistics in this section cover partnerships, joint ventures, syndicates, groups, pools, and most other associations of two or more persons organized for profit that were not specifically classified by the Internal Revenue Code as corporations. Partnerships were not taxable as such; the partners, who could be individuals, estates, trusts, partnerships, or corporations, reported their share of the partnership's taxable income (or loss) on their individual (corporation or other type) income tax return.

Not all partnership business activity is represented in these statistics. If there were special agreements among the partners to allocate certain of the income or expenses in ways not proportionate to their share interests, these income or expense items were not reported as a part of the partnership's income statement. They were reportable only on the partners' returns (although not always identifiable as such) and thus are not included here. In addition, the parties involved in joint production, extraction, investment, or use agreements that did not involve selling services or property produced or extracted could elect, under Code section 761, not to be considered as partnerships. The partners in such an agreement reported their share of the business income and deductions on their own returns, and no return was filed for the group. The actual extent of these business activities is not known; however, for petroleum exploration and production it is believed to be significant.

The partnership profit data in this report are not comparable to the income from partnerships in the Statistics of Income, Individual Income Tax Returns report principally because (1) the income year of the partnership does not always coincide with the income year of the partners, (2) not all partners are individuals, and (3) the partnership income reported on Form 1040 can include salaries and interest paid to partners in addition to net profit.

Chart 2A shows a ranking of the ten leading partnership activities by business receipts and number of partnerships for 1974 and compares the actual values for 1973 and 1974. Chart 2B shows a distribution of the number of partnerships and the amount of net profit (less loss) by number of partners.

Industrial Activity by State

Tables 2.4 and 2.5 present selected data classified by industry and by the State where the return was filed. These data may serve as estimates of partnership business activity within a State, even though the business is not necessarily operated in the State where the return was filed. If the partners lived in a different State, for example, the return might have been filed in that State; and, of course, a few partnerships were operated across State lines. However, it was assumed that most partnerships conducted all their business activity in the same State where they filed their returns.

The sample of partnership returns was designed to yield national rather than State statistics, so reliable State estimates were not possible for many industry classes. For the less populated States shown in table 2.5, it was possible to show only a few broad industry groupings. Since separate weighting factors for the State data were computed by Internal Revenue district to increase the reliability of the State estimates, the United States totals differ slightly from totals in other tables.

(1) Estimate not shown separately because of the small number of sample returns on which it was based. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

Total receipts for industries in Finance, insurance, and real estate, and Business receipts for all other industries.

(2) This is the standard deviation of the estimate expressed as a percentage of the estimate. These percentages, when added to and subtracted from the estimates in columns 1, 3, 7, and 9 to which they refer, give the range within which approximately two out of three such estimates from similar samples would be expected to fall.

*Less than 0.05 percent.

NOTE: "Contractors not allocable," "Wholesale and retail trade not allocable," and "Nature of business not allocable" are not shown separately because of the small number of sample returns on which they were based. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

(* Estimate is not shown separately because of the small number of sample returns on which it was based. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

¹This is the standard deviation of the estimate expressed as a percentage of the estimate. These percentages, when added to and subtracted from the estimates in columns 1 through 6 to which they refer, give the range within which approximately two out of three such estimates from similar samples would be expected to fall.²Total receipts for industries in Finance, insurance, and real estate, and Business receipts for all other industries.³United States totals exclude Puerto Rico and foreign returns.

NOTE Wholesale and retail trade not allocable and Nature of business not allocable are not shown separately because of the small number of sample returns on which they were based. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

Changes in Law

Changes in the Federal unemployment tax rate affected the statistics in this report. As amended by Public Law 92-329, enacted on June 30, 1972, the rate of Federal unemployment tax for calendar year 1974 was decreased from 3.28 percent to 3.2 percent of the first $4,200 of wages paid to each employee during the calendar year. The Federal unemployment tax was imposed solely on the employer; it could not be collected or deducted from the wages of the employee. In the statistics, it would generally be included in the "taxes paid" deduction.

Industrial Classification

In the tables in this report, businesses have been classified by the industrial activity from which they derived the largest share of their receipts. Every business return or schedule in the samples was assigned to a single industry class, even though receipts may have been from several different types of activities. The industry classes used were based on the Office of Management and Budget's Standard Industrial Classification Manual, modified where necessary to fit the information available from tax returns for identifying industries.

Returns and schedules in the statistical samples were examined during statistical processing, and each was assigned a code classifying it by industry in determining the code, the description of the business activity given by the taxpayer (and, for partnerships, the taxpayer-assigned code), the sources of the taxpayer's income, the nature of the expenses, and where necessary, information from various reference books were considered.

The fact that a reporting entity was in all cases assigned to a single industry class constitutes a limitation of the data. In the case of sole proprietorships, a code to identify type of industrial activity was assigned to each business and farm schedule attached to an individual income tax return. Since individual taxpayers normally filed a separate schedule for each separate business activity, and each such schedule was assigned to its own industry class, the limitation is not serious for sole proprietorships. It was more common, but still relatively rare, for partnerships to be extensively engaged in more than one type of business activity; however, it did occur, especially on the returns of larger partnerships, so there are some data in the partnership industry classes that are not really related to that industrial activity.

The Standard Industrial Classification Manual (SIC) for establishments, 1972 edition, served as the basis for the industry classification system in this report. The SIC industry classes were sometimes consolidated or modified because the information available from tax returns for determining industrial activity was limited and because not every industry was well represented in the statistical samples. Some industries are better represented by the legal forms, i.e., sole proprietorships and partnerships, covered in this report, for example, the trade and service industries. In contrast, the manufacturing industries are better represented by the corporate form. Most industry classes used in this report are equivalent to either the two, three, or four-digit industry level in the SIC system. However, a few classes represent a more detailed classification than the four-digit level of the SIC (for example, the SIC class, "Hotels, motels, and tourist courts" is divided into two classes in this report, "Hotels" and "Motels, motor hotels, and tourist courts"). One can usually determine equivalent SIC industries by comparing the SIC titles with the titles of the industries shown in the tables in this report. For equivalent industry classes, the SIC manual will give a detailed description of the content of the classes.

Explanation of Terms

This section contains brief descriptions of most of the terms appearing in the tables in this report.

The instructions for the tax forms in section 5 of this report will provide additional information about many items.

Explanations of terms are designed to aid in understanding the statistical content of this report and should not be construed as interpretations of the Internal Revenue Code or related regulations, procedures, or policies. Code sections cited are those which were in effect during period covered by this report.

Active Businesses

The statistics in this report are from the returns and schedules of "active" businesses only. An active business was defined as one reporting at least one item of income or deductions. Partnerships had to file returns even if they had no business activity during the year; however, returns having no items of income or deductions were excluded from the basic tables except the sample count tables in section 4. Sole proprietorships only filed business or farm schedules or Form 4835 if they had business activity, so there are no inactive sole proprietorships in any table.

Adjusted Gross Income

This amount was the result of reducing gross income from all sources subject to tax by adjustments such as the following:

- (1) Ordinary and necessary expenses of operating a trade or business,
- (2) Employee business and moving expenses,
- (3) Expense deductions attributable to rents and royalties,
- (4) Expenses of outside salesmen attributable to earning a salary, commission, or other compensation,
- (5) Depreciation and depletion allowed life tenants and income beneficiaries of property held in trust,
- (6) Exclusion of allowable sick pay if the sick pay was included in gross salary,
- (7) Deductible losses from sales of capital assets and other property,
- (8) Deductible half of the excess of net long-term capital gain over net short-term capital loss,
- (9) Excludable portion of qualified dividends (up to $100 (or $200) per taxpayer),
- (10) Business net operating loss carryover, and
- (11) Contributions to a self-employed retirement fund ("Keogh Plan").

A deficit adjusted gross income occurred when the allowable deductions or losses exceeded gross income.

Amortization

Amortization was a deduction for deferred expenses written off during the year. The following types of amortization, applicable to the statistics in this report, were specifically

Business Returns/1974 • Terms

mentioned in the Code as allowable deductions:

- bond premiums (section 171)
- child care facilities (section 188)
- coal mine safety equipment (section 187)
- leasee's improvements to leased property (section 178)
- on-the-job training facilities (section 188)
- pollution control facilities (section 169)
- railroad rolling stock (section 184)
- railroad tunnel bores and grading (section 185)
- research and experimental expenditures (section 174(b))
- trademark and trade name expenditures (section 177)

Of these, amortization of leasehold improvements was frequently included in depreciation and amortization of bond premiums was often shown as part of "other deductions." Write-offs of patents, copyrights, and other intangibles were usually included in depreciation.

Bad Debts

Bad debts occurring during the year or a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts was allowable as a deduction under section 166 of the Code.

Recoveries of bad debts previously deducted by taxpayers who used the reserve method were netted against the year's bad debt deduction; recoveries by taxpayers deducting actual bad debts were included in "other receipts" of partnerships, "other business income" of non-farm sole proprietorships, and "income from sales and operations" of farm proprietorships.

Business Receipts

Business receipts were, in general, gross receipts from sales and operations reduced by the cost of returned goods and allowances. They may have included excise and sales taxes which were included in the sales price of the product; some taxpayers reported receipts this way and deducted the taxes as expenses, while others reported their receipts after adjustment for any taxes.

In the finance division, business receipts included such banking items as fees, commissions, trust department earnings, exchange collections, discounts, and service charges, when identified in schedules attached to the return.

For sole proprietorships, business receipts were all income from the operation of the business, including incidental income from such things as sale of scrap or cash rebates that corporations and partnerships generally included in "other receipts." Dividends, interest, rents, royalties, and other investment type income were generally not included in sole proprietorship receipts, although rents or interest that were actually income from business operations were sometimes included, for example, rents received by real estate operators and interest received by small-loan companies.

In table 1.2, business receipts of sole proprietorships are classified into the two components, "income from sales and operations" and "other business income." "Income from sales and operations" comprises gross receipts or sales from the trade, business, or farm. "Other business income" includes sales of scrap, amounts recovered from bad debts, and interest, as well as other kinds of miscellaneous income. For farms, "income from sales and operations" includes patronage dividends from farmers' cooperatives, agricultural program payments, and gasoline tax credits and refunds, as well as other farm income. These latter amounts were combined with "business receipts" of the farm since they were an integral part of the farm operation.

For partnerships, business receipts were, generally, the income from the company's principal business activities. Rents earned in addition to the company's principal income and interest, royalties, and nonqualifying dividends were, for the most part, reported separately. However, when rent was actually operating income, as, for example, for hotels, real estate operators, or manufacturers who rented rather than sold their products, the rental income was included in business receipts. Incidental income, such as cash discounts or recoveries of taxes or bad debts previously deducted, was usually shown as "other receipts."

Returns filed by partnership security dealers were given special treatment in statistical processing. Sales of securities were netted against the cost of these "goods" and only the net amount was shown as business receipts. Since it was usually not possible to separate sales of securities from other sources of receipts, such as commissions, an arbitrary rule was used for partnerships in the specified industries; if cost of sales and operations was 50 percent or more of business receipts, costs were subtracted from receipts and the difference was used as business receipts. No such adjustments were made for sole proprietorships in these industries, and the receipts and cost of sales and operations were shown in the tables as the taxpayers reported them (see also "Cost of sales and operations" in this section).

Business receipts from farming were understated for all forms of business, because they did not include receipts from the sale of livestock held for draft, breeding, dairy, or sporting purposes. Income from the sale of such cattle and horses held for at least 2 years and other livestock (except poultry) held for at least 1 year was reported as gain or loss from the sale or exchange of property (either by the partnership or by its partners, depending on requirements specified in the Code), rather than as business receipts.

Cost of Labor

Cost of labor was a component of cost of sales and operations. For sole proprietorships in nonfarm industries it represented the amount reported on line 3, page 1 of Schedule C-1, Form 1040. For sole proprietors and partnerships engaged in farming using Schedule F, which did not contain a cost of sales and operations schedule as such, it represented the amount reported on page 1, part II, item 29

"labor hired." For nonfarm partnerships, it was the amount reported in Schedule A, line 29 on page 1 of Form 1065. (See "Payroll.")

Cost of Sales and Operations

If the receipts of the business included income from the sale of merchandise, cost of goods sold generally included the direct cost of that merchandise. In this sense it included goods purchased for resale (including inventory change) in trade industries, and raw materials, supplies, labor, and other direct costs in agriculture, mining, manufacturing, and other industries whose principal activity was producing goods. "Cost of operations" related to returns for which inventories were not an income-determining factor.

If the receipts of the business were from the sale of services rather than goods, the corresponding figure for cost of operations was not always comparable for sole proprietorships and partnerships. For partnerships, cost of operations generally included labor costs, supplies, rental of machinery and equipment, and other direct costs of producing the services. Many partnerships and most sole proprietorships did not report cost of operations as completely as did corporations, allocating the costs to the expense items rather than to cost of operations.

Farm costs for sole proprietorships and partnerships presented special problems because the schedule used did not provide for a cost of goods sold or cost of operations computation. The cost of sales and operations statistics presented here for unincorporated farms were constructed from the expense schedules during statistical processing. See the discussions in this section under "Merchandise purchased," "Cost of labor," "Material and Supplies," and "Other costs."

For both sole proprietorships and partnerships, certain deduction items which might sometimes be considered direct costs were not included in the statistics for cost of goods sold (or cost of operations) if they could be identified. If taxpayers reported them there, they were removed during statistical processing and transferred to the appropriate deduction line. Transferred were all identifiable amounts of depreciation, depletion, amortization, taxes (including sales and excise taxes), and contributions to employee pension and other benefit plans.

Statistical adjustments to cost of goods sold made for partnership security dealers are explained under "Business receipts."

Depletion

Depletion, a deduction allowable for the exhaustion of natural deposits or timber, could be based on cost, or, for natural deposits, on a fixed percentage of gross income, less rents and royalties paid, from the depletable property. For oil and gas wells, gross income was computed on the value of the product at the well-head. For depletable property other than oil and gas wells, "gross income" included not only the value of the mineral extracted from the property but also the value added by some transportation of the mineral and certain "treatment processes considered as mining" (Code section 613).

Under elective provisions of the Code, exploration and development expenditures connected with certain domestic natural deposits (except oil and gas), generally, could be deducted currently, treated as deferred expenses, or capitalized. The write-offs of amounts deferred or capitalized were not included as part of depletion.

Percentage depletion, though based on percentages of gross income from the depletable property, was limited. It could not exceed 50 percent of the taxable income from the property, computed without the depletion deduction. The percentage depletion rates for each type of deposit were listed in Code section 613 and ranged from 5 to 22 percent.

The statistics include any identifiable depletion reported as a cost of sales and operations.

Depreciation

The deduction for depreciation permitted a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence of business property in cases where the estimated useful life of the property exceeded one year. The purpose was to enable businesses to recover the cost or other basis of depreciable property by allocating the cost of the property over its estimated useful life. A deduction for depreciation was not allowable on inventories, or land apart from the physical improvements or developments to it.

Several methods of computation could have been used in determining the deduction for the year. The most common method was straight-line, whereby an equal amount is deducted in each year of the useful life of the asset. The declining balance and the sum of the years-digits methods, whereby a larger portion of the asset's cost is written off during the earlier years of its life than during its later years, were also commonly used. These latter methods were specifically authorized by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and were generally permissible in the case of assets acquired after December 31, 1953. Standard useful lives, based on grouping assets according to the industrial activities in which they were used, were issued in 1962 as guidelines for establishing the "reasonableness" of the depreciation deduction. Use of them was tied to past retirement and replacement practices.

These "guideline lives" were modified for 1971 under the "class life asset depreciation range (CLADR) system. Under this system, assets of the same type acquired in the same year were grouped into one or more closed-end "vintage" accounts and the accounts were assigned useful lives chosen from a range of published useful lives. The range of useful lives was generally from 20 percent longer to 20 percent shorter than the industry-grouped "guideline lives" established under the previous rules; but the Treasury Department could modify the guidelines lives in the future as necessary. Use of the 1971 rules did not have to be justified based on past retirement and replacement practices. The only allowable depreciation methods under the system were the straight line, declining balance, and sum of the years-digits methods. Salvage value was not to be taken into account in computing depreciation, but no "vintage" account could be depreciated below a reasonable salvage value. Under the CLADR system, depreciation of assets acquired prior to 1971 could be depreciated under the new rules but no range of useful lives was allowed.

Amounts shown as depreciation include any identifiable depreciation reported as an operating or manufacturing cost. Also included in the statistics are amounts deducted on leasehold improvements, patents, and copyrights. Additional first-year (section 179) depreciation was included in the statistics for proprietorships but for partnerships it was allocated to the partners for reporting on their own returns.

Employee Benefit Programs

Contributions by employers to employee benefit plans other than deferred-compensation plans were deductible under Code section 162 for all forms of business organizations. These plans included such things as hospitalization, health and accident insurance, group life insurance, and other employee welfare plans.

Contributions to retirement and other deferred compensation plans deductible under Code section 404 were included in "Retirement Plans."

Farm Net Profit (or Loss), Partnership Returns

Farm net profit is shown in the partnership tables as an item of income, and farm net loss is shown as a deduction, for those partnerships not reporting the detail of income and expenses from farming. If a Schedule F, Form 1040, was attached (as it was supposed to be), supporting the amount reported as farm net profit or loss, the components were combined during statistical processing with the equivalent income and deduction items shown on Form 1065. For example, "rent of farm or pasture" was combined with the deduction item, "Rents paid." If no supporting schedule was attached, the net amounts were shown as farm net profit or loss. The detail was reported by most farm partnerships, so the amount shown in the tables is a residual representing only a small portion of partnership farming activity.

Income from Sales and Operations

See "Business Receipts."

Income (or Loss) from Other Partnerships, etc.

This is the partnership's share of the profits (whether received or not) or losses of another partnership, except the partnership's distributive share of another partnership's capital gains or losses.

Income Tax after Credits

Income tax after credits shown in proprietorship table 1.6 was the sole proprietors' income tax liability for the year, after being reduced by any credits, including the investment, retirement income, foreign tax, and Work Incentive (WIN) credits. The liability was based on the proprietors' income from all sources and so was not directly related to the profits or losses from the sole proprietorship business. The income tax figure does not include the Social Security self-employment tax, tax from recomputing prior-year investment or Work Incentive (WIN) credits, additional tax for tax preferences ("minimum tax"), or social security tax on tip income.

The income tax figures in this report are generally the liability as reported on returns at the time of filing. Any adjustments resulting from audit and other events occurring after filing are not reflected.

Interest Paid

Interest paid in connection with business indebtedness was deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. Included in the statistics was interest paid on deposits and withdrawable shares by banking and savings institutions. Also included were amounts paid by partnerships to a partner, acting in other than a capacity as a partner, for the use of capital.

Interest Received

This item for partnerships included interest received by the business from all sources except interest wholly tax-exempt and interest on tax-free covenant bonds.

This item for sole proprietors was not considered business income and was therefore reported elsewhere on the individual income tax return.

Inventories

Inventories consisted of goods held for sale or of raw materials and supplies that would become a part of goods held for sale. Taxpayers engaged in manufacturing, trade, or any other business (except farming) where the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise was an income producing factor were required to use inventories in computing the gross income from their businesses. The use of inventories required that direct expenses of production, such as factory labor for a manufacturing concern, be accrued and charged against sales in the year the finished goods were sold. In accounting for the sale of goods, therefore, all such businesses were required to use the accrual method of accounting. Inventories were normally valued at actual cost or at the lower of actual cost or market price.

Farmers were required to use inventories only if they elected to use the accrual method of accounting for their profit or loss from the sale of farm products. Farm inventories consisted of livestock, harvested crops held for sale or for future use, and supplies. Growing crops and livestock on which depreciation was taken were not included in inventories. Farm inventories could be valued by special methods in addition to cost and lower of cost or market. Under the unit-livestock-price method, livestock was grouped by kind and age and all animals in each group were valued at the estimated cost of raising such animals. Under the farm-price method, each item of inventory was valued at the estimated market price, less cost of disposition. Valuing inventories by the farm-price method could result in an increase in the value of ending inventories over beginning inventories without any corresponding increase in expenses or costs.

Materials and Supplies

The amount of materials and supplies, a component of the cost of goods sold, was secured for sole proprietorships from Schedules C or F. For nonfarms, it was the amount on line 4, page 1 of Schedule C-1. For farms, it was the item "supplies purchased," line 37, part II, page 1 of Schedule F (for both cash and accrual methods of accounting). For nonfarm partnerships, it was the amount reported on line 30, Schedule A, Form 1065.

Merchandise Purchased

Merchandise purchased (called "purchases" for partnerships) was a component of the cost of goods sold. For nonfarm businesses, the sources were: (1) line 2, page 1 of Schedule C-1, Form 1040, and (2) line 28, Schedule A, of Form 1065. For farms, the sources were on Schedule F, column c, part I, page 1, for farmers using the cash accounting method, and line 71, part V, page 2, for farmers using the accrual accounting method.

Net Gain (or Loss), Noncapital Assets

This income for partnerships represented gains and losses from the sale of exchange of property not eligible for capital gains tax treatment. This income item did not include gains and losses under section 1231. For partnerships, section 1231 gains and losses were reported by the partners on their own returns. In general, section 1231 gains and losses comprised (a) sales of business property (excluding inventories) which were held for more than 6 months and (b) "involuntary conversions" by theft or casualty of business property and of capital assets which were held over 6 months. Sales or exchanges of noncapital assets were reported by sole proprietors as nonbusiness income.

Net Profit (or Loss)

For sole proprietorships, net profit (or loss) represented the difference between business receipts and the sum of cost of sales and operations and other business deductions. Sole proprietorship net profit did not include investment income; and salaries to owners and business-related contributions or gifts were includable elsewhere on the returns of sole proprietors and so are not reflected in sole proprietorship net profit or loss.

For partnerships, net profit (or loss) represented the difference between total receipts and the sum of cost of sales and operations and other business deductions. Total receipts included, in addition to business receipts, investment income attributable to the partnership (except capital gains and losses and gains and losses under Code section 1231 as explained under "Net gain (or loss), noncapital assets," above). The deductions for partnerships excluded both contributions or gifts and additional first-year depreciation, which were reported on the partners' returns.

In this report, the term "net profit" is used for both sole proprietorships and partnerships although it is not strictly comparable for the two forms of business organizations. Three differences are: (1) investment income is reflected in partnership net profit but not in proprietorship net profit; (2) salaries paid to owners are a business deduction for partnerships but not for proprietorships; and (3) additional first-year depreciation is a deduction in the computation of sole proprietorship net profit but not in the determination of partnership net profit.

Nonqualifying Dividends Received

This investment-type income for partnerships represented certain corporate dividends which were includable in the income of the partnership and for which the individual partners were not entitled the $100 (or $200) dividend exclusion on their individual income tax returns when the income was passed through to the partners.

Number of Businesses

Number of business organizations in this report represented the number of active businesses operated as sole proprietorships by individuals and the number of active partnerships.

Number of sole proprietorships was based on the number of Schedules C and F or Forms 4835 filed with the income tax return, Form 1040, of the sole proprietor. When sole proprietors submitted (with their Form 1040) multiple schedules covering the activities of more than one business, each of these schedules was counted separately. (See also "Farm Landlords and Farm Operators" in section 1 of this report.)

Other Business Deductions

See "Other Deductions."

Other Business Income

See "Business Receipts."

Other Costs

Other costs was a component of cost of sales and operations. For nonfarm businesses, these costs were reported on line 31, Schedule A, Form 1065, or line 5, page 1, of Schedule C-1, Form 1040. For farmers, the amount was computed from Schedule F, for both cash and accrual methods of accounting, as follows: farm expenses (total, part II, on page 1) less the sum of the items, labor hired, repairs and maintenance, interest, rent of farm or pasture, supplies purchased, taxes, insurance, pension and profit-sharing plans, employee benefit programs, amortization, and depletion. If inventories, purchases, and the other components of cost of goods sold were not reported, the entire amount was included in other costs for these statistics.

Other Deductions

Other deductions comprised business expenses which were not allocable to a specific deduction item on the return form, such as administrative, general, and selling expenses; bonuses; delivery, freight, and shipping expenses; truck and automobile expenses (except repairs); utilities; supplies; advertising and promotion; travel and entertainment; dues and subscription; postage and stationery; and, laundry, uniforms, and cleaning. For partnerships, this item also included unrealized profit on current-year installment sales; reported amounts of negative income; commissions; insurance; and legal and professional fees. For sole proprietorships the last three were shown as specific deductions on the return forms and were tabulated separately.

The estimates for other deductions may also include losses resulting from "involuntary conversions" of business assets by theft or casualty (see "Net Gain (or Loss), Noncapital Assets").

Other Income less Losses and Adjustments

This item in table 1.6 was computed as adjusted gross income minus adjusted gross deficit minus business net profit plus business net loss. In effect, it consisted of nonbusiness sources of income, such as wages and salaries, dividends, interest, and sales of capital assets - components and sales of capital assets - components of the taxpayer's total income.

Adjusted gross income equalled total income less statutory adjustments to income. Adjustments to income were comprised of sick pay, moving expense, employee business expense and self-employed retirement deduction. :04 Other Income or Loss (table 1.6) :10 See "Other Income less Losses and Adjustments."

Other Income or Loss (table 1.6)

See "Other Income less Losses and Adjustments."

Other Receipts

For partnerships, this item included amounts not elsewhere reported in the income statements, such as: income from minor operations; cash discounts; income from claims, license rights, and judgments; net amount earned under operating agreements; profit from commissaries; profit on prior years' collections (installment basis); recoveries of losses and bad debts previously claimed for tax purposes; refunds for cancellation of contracts; and income from sales of scrap, salvage, or waste. For sole proprietorships, these items would usually be reported as "other business income."

Payments to Partners

Guaranteed payments which were made for services or for the use of capital where such payments were determined without regard to income of the partnership were allowed as a deduction in the computation of the partnership net profit (or loss).

Payroll

Payroll, shown in this report for sole proprietorships and partnerships, was the sum of cost of labor reported in cost of sales and operations plus salaries and wages reported among the deduction items. Various kinds of contract labor not actually representing payroll, such as janitorial or secretarial services, were also included. Payments to owners or partners were excluded.

Amounts of payroll were frequently included by taxpayers in other deduction items, such as commissions, legal and professional fees, repairs or other deduction items. Because of the difficulty of identifying such amounts, they were shown in these tables as reported by the taxpayer. Thus the amount shown for payroll is probably understated.

Pension, Profit-sharing, Stock Bonus, and Annuity Plans

See "Retirement Plans."

Purchases

See "Merchandise Purchased."

Rent (Paid)

Rent paid on business property was deductible as an ordinary and necessary expense. Identifiable amounts of taxes and other expenses paid by lessees in connection with rent paid were included in their respective deduction headings. Excluded were payments in the form of crops by tenant farmers to landlords under crop-sharing agreements.

Rents Received

Rents received for the use or occupancy of property consisted of the gross amounts. Depreciation, repairs, interest, taxes, and other expenses, which were deductible from gross rents, were included in their respective deduction items. The rental income of partnerships if it constituted the major portion of income was included in business receipts.

Repairs

This deduction included cost of labor and supplies and other costs necessary for incidental repairs to the property. It did not include capital expenditures which added to the property value, improvements which appreciably prolonged its life, or expenditures for restoring or replacing property, which were added to the depreciable basis of the property and recovered through depreciation.

The "class life asset depreciation range" (CLADR) system included a provision for accounting for repairs of property placed in a "vintage" account. Taxpayers using the system as the basis for their depreciation deduction could elect to deduct currently certain expenditures for repairs, maintenance, rehabilitation, or improvement up to a specified amount (repair allowance) for each account, with the excess capitalized in its own "vintage" account and depreciated (see also Depreciation).

Retirement Plans

This deduction item was the employer's contributions to employee pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus, annuity, bond purchase, or other deferred compensation plans that were deductible under Code section 404. It did not include any payments by self-employed persons to their own retirement plans, which were reported on individual income tax returns as adjustments used in arriving at adjusted gross income.

Royalties

This income item for partnerships was the gross amount received for the use of property rights, such as patents, copyrights, and mineral rights. Expenses related to this income, such as depletion and taxes, were not deducted directly from the income but were reported among the specific deduction items.

Excluded were certain royalties received under a lease agreement on timber, coal deposits, and domestic iron ore deposits, which were allowed special tax treatment. Under elective provisions of Code section 631, the net gain or loss on such royalties were included in the computation of net gain or loss on sales or exchanges of certain business property under section 1231 and as such were reportable by the partners on their own returns and not by the partnership.

Salaries and Wages

This item consists of those salaries and wages not included as a deduction for "cost of labor" in the cost of sales and operations schedule. Salaries to partners and sole proprietors were not included in this amount.

Taxes Paid

Taxes paid included the amounts reported as an ordinary and necessary business deduction as well as identifiable amounts reported as part of the cost of sales and operations. Included among the deductible taxes were ordinary State and local taxes paid or accrued during the year; social security and payroll taxes; unemployment insurance taxes; import and tariff duties; and business, license, and privilege taxes. Income and profits taxes paid to foreign countries or United States possessions were also deductible unless claimed as a credit against income tax. Not deductible were such taxes as Federal income and excess profits taxes, gift taxes, and taxes assessed against local benefits. If a business included in business receipts the excise and related taxes included in the sales price of its products, these taxes also were generally included in the deduction for taxes paid.

Total Assets

Total assets were those reported in the end-of-year balance sheet in the partnerships' books of account. Total assets were net after reduction by accumulated depreciation, amortization, and depletion, and by the reserve for bad debts. When these reserves were reported as liabilities, they were treated as reductions from the asset accounts to which they related and the totals of assets and liabilities were adjusted accordingly.

Total Deductions

Total deductions for sole proprietorships consisted of (1) the deduction for cost of sales and operations and (2) the ordinary and necessary business deductions from gross income. In addition, for partnerships, total deductions also included expenses connected with investment income, and net loss from sales of noncapital assets. Total deductions for partnerships also included farm net loss and the partnership's share of net loss from other partnerships.

Total Receipts

For partnerships, total receipts represented the sum of business receipts; investment income such as interest, rents, royalties, nonqualifying dividends, net gain from sale or exchange of noncapital assets; income from farms and other partnerships; and, "other" income. For purposes of this report, total receipts did not reflect net losses from the foregoing sources.

Zero Assets

The final returns of liquidating or dissolving partnerships which had disposed of all assets were represented in this "asset size" category. The liquidating or dissolving partnerships had been active, however, during a portion of the accounting period.

Sample Criteria and Selection of Returns

The data in this report are estimates based on probability samples of the following returns: (1) Form 1040, Individual Income Tax Returns, with business or farm schedules, derived from a larger sample which included nonbusiness Forms 1040 and 1040A as well which were selected at rates ranging from 0.04 percent to 100 percent on the basis of size of adjusted gross income or largest of selected income or loss sources and proprietorship business receipts; (2) Form 1065, Partnership Returns of Income, selected at rates ranging from 1.4 percent to 100 percent on the basis of size of gross receipts, total income or loss, and total assets. The returns were selected before audit. Tentative and amended returns were excluded from the samples, since another return for the same taxpayer was subject to sampling.

The estimates for the sole proprietorship tables in this report represent returns revenue-processed during 1975. The overwhelming majority of these returns were for calendar year 1974, however about 0.3 percent were for noncalendar years or for earlier income periods. The earlier returns were included to compensate for current-year returns filed after the sampling cut-off date.

Partnership statistics for 1974 included data from both calendar and noncalendar year returns with accounting periods ending as early as July 1974 and as late as June 1975. Based on studies from previous years, an estimated 92 percent of the partnership returns were for the 1974 calendar year.

The return characteristics used for stratifying each population are indicated in tables 4A and 4B with the strata limits and the number of returns in the population and sample per stratum. In all cases, distinct sets of monetary classes, i.e., the stratum limits, are listed beneath the characteristics which apply to them. For a return to fall in a particular stratum, both conditions on a line had to be satisfied.

Individual Income Tax Returns were divided into five groups by State, each group receiving a separate set of rates, and then sampled systematically by computer. The groups of States were formed on the basis of the tax return population of each State to assure a sufficient sample in the states with smaller populations. The ranges for these group rates are given in table 4A.

The Form 1065 sample was obtained using randomly selected sets of the ending digits of the Employer Identification Number.

Duplicate returns, as when more than one partner may have filed a separate return for the same partnership, and inactive partnership returns, those returns reporting no income or deduction items, were included in the sample for the computation of weighting factors but excluded from the tabulations.

The completeness of the samples was monitored closely during the selection process. Minimal followup was required to reconcile differences.

Method of Estimation

Weighting factors were obtained by dividing the computer count of returns filed in each sample stratum by the number of sample returns actually selected from each stratum. The weighting factors were then converted to "integer weighting factors" before they were applied to the sample returns. For example, if a factor of 44.24 was computed for a stratum, 24 percent of the sample returns in the stratum were systematically given an integer weighting factor of 45, and 76 percent a weight of 44.

Sampling Variability

The coefficient of variation (CV) is the standard deviation of the estimate expressed as a percent of the estimate. The standard deviation when added to and subtracted from the estimate provides the computed upper and lower limits within which approximately two out of three estimates derived from similarly selected samples would be expected to fall. Coefficients of Variation based on the sum of squares method are shown for selected estimates in each industry class for proprietorships and partnerships in tables 1.1 and 2.1.

Coefficient of variation estimates based on a special formula are shown in tables 4C and 4D for frequency estimates in general. Since CV's in tables 1.1 and 2.1 were computed only for industry groups, tables 4C and 4D can be used to obtain measures of variability for estimated frequencies in other tables where the classification is not by industry.

Where the coefficients of variation for estimates of frequencies and money amounts were considered unreliable because of small sample size, the estimates for these returns were either 1) combined with estimates for other returns or 2) deleted and noted by an asterisk in the body of the table and included in the appropriate totals.

A dash in place of a frequency or amount indicates that: (1) if returns were sampled at a rate of 100 percent, no returns had the particular characteristic; or (2) if returns were sampled at a rate less than 100 percent, either no returns in the population had the characteristic or the characteristic was so rare that it did not appear on any sample return.

Response and Other Nonsampling Errors

In transcribing and tabulating the information from the returns in the sample, additional checks were imposed to improve the quality of the resulting estimates. Incorrect or missing entries were corrected during statistical processing to make them consistent with other entries on the return or accompanying schedules.

Quality of the basic data abstracted at the processing centers was controlled there by means of a continuous subsampling verification system. In addition, the Statistics Division in the National Office conducted an independent reprocessing of a small subsample of the returns statistically processed in the field as a further ¹The population of farm returns was estimated by applying weights derived from the achieved sampling rates for total individual returns to the number of returns in the sample determined to be farm returns.²Includes a small number of returns initially classified as nonbusiness, but subsequently reclassified after the sampling stage as business returns.³Returns with both business and farm schedules are classified with business returns.

¹Sampling rates were prescribed for the calendar year in which the returns were processed for revenue purposes. Returns for 1974 were for the most part revenue processed during 1975 and were therefore sampled according to the plan applicable to calendar year 1975. However, included in the totals but not in the detail are 547 returns for 1974 sampled during 1974 from a population of 7,221 returns, under the sample plan applicable to that calendar year. In general, these were returns with accounting periods ended July through October 1974.

Finally, prior to publication all statistics and tables were reviewed for accuracy and reasonableness, in light of provisions of tax laws, taxpayer reporting variations and limitations, economic conditions, comparability with other statistical sources and statistical techniques used in data processing.

However, the controls maintained over the selection of the sample returns, the processing of the source data, and the review of the statistics did not completely eliminate the possibility of error. Also, practical operating considerations necessitated allowance of reasonable tolerances in the statistical processing of the data.

Guide for Preparing a Return

You may find it helpful in completing your Form 1040 to follow these steps and check them off as you go.

Step 1.—Gather up your income records including Forms W-2, W-2P, and 1099. If your employer does not give you a Form W-2 by January 31, or if the one you have is not correct, contact your employer as soon as possible. Only he can issue your W-2 or correct it. If unable to secure Form W-2 from him, contact an Internal Revenue Service office.

Step 2.—If you are going to itemize your deductions, collect your expense records, such as medical and dental bills, real estate taxes, State income tax, home mortgage interest, and charitable contributions. To make sure you do not forget any items, look on pages 10 through 12 of these instructions. Check the types of expenses you can deduct. Put these records aside until later.

Step 3.—Get the forms or schedules you need but did not receive by mail. See the order blank. It will help you decide which ones you will need.

Step 4.—Name and Address. Use the mailing label on the forms we sent you. Correct your name and address if necessary. Also show your apartment number if you have one. If you did not receive forms with a label, print or type your name and address.

Step 5.—County of Residence. Fill in this block. See Instructions for County of Residence on page 4.

Step 6.—Social Security Number. If your social security number is wrong on the label or if you did not receive a label, show your correct number on your return. If you are married, please give numbers of both you and your spouse whether you file jointly or separately.

If you do not have a social security number, get an application Form SS-5 from a Social Security Administration office, post office, or from IRS. File it with the local office of the Social Security Administration. Do this early enough to make sure you receive a number before April 15. If you do not receive a number by April 15, file your return without it and write "Applied for" in the space for social security number.

Don't forget to show occupations in spaces in upper right corner just below social security blocks.

Form 1040 Instructions

Where to Get Forms

In general, we mail forms and schedules directly to you based on what you filed last year. Many people will need only Form 1040. The order blank inside the tax forms package will help you get many of the forms, schedules, and publications referred to in these instructions. Many banks and post offices have the same material. However, if you don't find what you need there, please fill out the order blank and we will send them to you.

Who Must File

(See page 6 for examples of income)

- Step 7.—Filing Status. Check only one block (lines 1 through 5). Your tax rate depends on the block you check. So before you decide, see instructions for Filing Status on page 4.
- Step 8.—Exemptions. Fill in lines 6a, b, c, d, and 7. See instructions for Exemptions on page 5.
- Step 9.—Check appropriate "Yes" or "No" box(es) on line 8 (Presidential Election Campaign Fund). If you check the "Yes" box(es), it will not increase your tax or reduce your refund.
- Step 10.—Fill in the schedules and forms mentioned for lines 10, 11, 28 through 32, and 39 through 41 if you need to. Enter the totals from your schedules on the correct lines on Form 1040.

If you need more space on forms or schedules, attach separate sheets that follow the same size and arrangement of printed forms, but show your totals on the printed forms. Be sure to put your name and social security number on these separate sheets.

- Step 11.—Fill in lines 9 through 15. This will give you your adjusted gross income. The instructions between lines 15 and 16 are guides to tell you where to proceed after you have filled in line 15. If the third instruction is applicable, be sure to check the block.

Step 12.—Decide whether to use the standard deduction or itemize your deductions. The instructions Should You Use the Standard Deduction or Itemize Your Deductions? on page 6 will help you decide.

Step 13.—Figure your tax if you decided to take the standard deduction and you DID NOT check the block between lines 15 and 16 (if you checked the block, follow the instructions on page 7; or, if you decided to itemize, skip to Step 14). If line 15 is under $10,000, find your tax in Tax Tables 1 through 12. (The standard deduction is included and your tax is already figured out for you.) Enter the amount on line 16. Skip the rest of this step and step 14.

If line 15 is $10,000 or more, fill in lines 44 through 48 on the back of your return. (Your standard deduction goes on line 45.) Use Tax Rate Schedule X, Y, or Z to figure your tax. Show the amount on line 16. Skip step 14.

Step 14.—Figure your tax if you decided to itemize deductions. Fill in Schedule A and enter your total deductions on line 45 of Form 1040. Fill in lines 44, 46, 47, and 48. Use Tax Rate Schedule X, Y, or Z to figure your tax. Show the amount on line 16.

Step 15.—Fill in lines 49 through 65 if you have credits, other taxes, or other payments to report. Complete the forms or schedules asked for. Enter the amounts from these lines on the front of your return. Fill in any other amounts needed for lines 17 through 26.

Step 16.—Check the appropriate block to answer the Foreign Account Question after line 65. See instructions for Do You Have an Account in a Foreign Country? on page 9.

Step 17.—If you owe tax, show amount on line 23. Attach check or money order for full amount when you file. Make it out to "Internal Revenue Service" and be sure to write your social security number on it. If line 23 is under $1, you do not have to pay.

Step 18.—If we owe you a refund, show amount on line 24. On line 25 or 26, show whether you want some or all of the money refunded or credited to 1975 estimated tax. If line 24 is under $1, we will send you a refund only on written request.

Step 19.—Recheck Your Return. Go over all items and make sure they are right. Also check your arithmetic.

Step 20.—Sign Your Return. It is not considered a return unless you do. Both you and your spouse must sign a joint return. If you pay someone to prepare your return, be sure that person also signs. If prepared by a firm or corporation, it should be signed in the name of the firm or corporation. If prepared by your regular, full-time employee, such as a clerk, secretary, or bookkeeper, the employee does not have to sign.

Step 21.—Attachments. Attach Forms W-2 or W-2P (copy B) to front of Form 1040. If you took an adjustment for sick pay on line 39, be sure to attach Form 2440 or statement if the sick pay is not shown on Forms W-2 and W-2P. Attach schedules in alphabetical order and forms other than W-2 or W-2P in numbered order to the back of Form 1040. If you owe tax, be sure to attach your payment to the front of Form 1040.

Notes: If you move to a new address after filing your return and you are expecting a refund, be sure to file a change of address with the post office serving your old address. Unless you do this, the post office cannot forward your check to your new address.

File a return if you are: And your gross income is at least:

Single or are a widow or widower, and are under 65	$2,050	$3,550
--	---------	---------

Single or are a widow or widower, and are 65 or older	2,800	4,300
---	-------	-------

Single, can be claimed as a dependent on your parent's return, and have taxable dividends, interest, or other unearned income	750	750
---	-----	-----

Married filing jointly, living together at end of 1974 (or at date of death of spouse), and one is 65 or older	2,800	750
--	-------	-----

Self-employed and your net earnings from self-employment were at least $400

If income tax was withheld even though you are not required to file a return, you should file to get a refund.

These rules are for all U.S. citizens and resident aliens, including those under 21 years of age.

U.S. Citizens Living Abroad

Generally, foreign source income must be reported on your return. See Publication 54, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens Abroad.

Death of Taxpayer. If a person died in 1974, or in 1975 before filing a return for 1974, the surviving spouse or executor or administrator of the estate must file a return for the deceased.

The executor or administrator can file a joint return with the surviving spouse. If an executor or administrator has not been appointed, the survivor can still file a joint return. The income of both spouses must be included on it.

If you are filing such a joint return, write in the signature area that you are surviving spouse. Show the date of death in the name and address space. If a refund is due, attach Form 1310 to your return. For more information on this, get Publication 559, Federal Tax Guide for Survivors, Executors, and Administrators.

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars. You may round off cents to the nearest whole dollar on your return and schedules. You can drop amounts under 50 cents—increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to next dollar. Example, $1.39 becomes $1 and $2.69 becomes $3.

Recordkeeping Requirements. Get Publication 552, Recordkeeping Requirements and A Guide To Tax Publications, for details.

When To File. As soon as you can after January 1, but not later than April 15, 1975. Late filing may subject you to penalties and interest. See instructions for Penalties and Interest on page 7.

Where To File. Mail your return to the Internal Revenue Service Center for the place where you live. Use the addressed envelope that came with your return, or use the address for your State.

County of Residence

Print or type the full name (do not abbreviate) of the County ("Parish" in Louisiana; organized "borough" in Alaska) in which you live, unless you live in one of the cities listed below, or in the District of Columbia, or in Alaska but not in an organized borough.

If you live in one of the following cities, enter its name, followed by the word "City."

Baltimore City, Maryland
Carson City, Nevada
Columbus, Georgia
St. Louis City, Missouri

Certain cities in Virginia—

Alexandria	Franklin	Petersburg
Bedford	Fredericksburg	Portsmouth
Bristol	Gainesville	Radford
Brownsville	Hanover	Ridgeway
Charlottesville	Harrisonburg	Rosemont
Chesapeake	Hopewell	Salem
Clifford	Leesburg	South Boston
Clinton	Lynchburg	Staunton
Covington	Martinsville	Suffolk
Danville	Nashua	Virginia Beach
Emporia	Newmarket	Waynesboro
Fairfax	Roanoke	Williamsburg
Falls Church	Norton	Winchester

If you live in Washington, D.C., enter "D.C." If you live in Alaska not within one of the organized boroughs, enter the letter "U".

Note: If your principal residence is in a State other than the one shown in the mail-

4. Fill in lines 9 through 15, lines 17, 19, 21a, b, and d, if necessary. Answer the foreign accounts question after line 65.

5. On a joint return, show your and your spouse's income separately on the dotted line to the left of the line 15 entry space.

6. Sign your return. Both you and your spouse must sign a joint return.

7. File on or before April 15, 1975. We will then figure your tax and send you refund checks if you paid too much or bill you if you did not pay enough.

Note: If you have a retirement income credit, we will figure that also. Just attach Schedule R after you have answered the question for columns A and B, and filled in lines 2 and 5. Then write RIC on line 17 of Form 1040.

do not pay, the other will have to.

Things to Remember on a Joint Return. Use the mailing label sent you with your return if it shows names and social security numbers of both you and your spouse. If it does not, or if you did not receive a label, show first names and middle initials for both. Enter social security numbers for both. Show all income, exemptions, and deductions of you and your spouse. Both of you must sign the return.

Separate Returns. You can file separately if both you and your spouse had income or if only one of you had income. Both you and your spouse must figure your tax the same way. This means if one itemizes deductions, the other must itemize. If one takes the percentage standard deduction, the other must take the percentage standard deduction and cannot take the low-income allowance (this is $650 for a separate return). You each report only your own income, exemptions, and deductions, and you are responsible only for the tax due on your own return. If you and your spouse live in a community property State and both itemize deductions, those paid from joint funds can be divided equally between you. See Publication 555, Community Property and the Federal Income Tax.

Tax Savings. Before you file a separate return, see if you can reduce your tax by meeting the tests described below in "Were You Married and Living Apart From Your Spouse?" If so, use the Single filing status or, if you qualify, Unmarried Head of Household.

Things to Remember on a Separate Return.—Check the block on line 3, "Married filing separately." If both you and your spouse file separate returns, write your spouse's full name in space provided on line 3 and enter spouse's social security number in designated space.

Check the applicable boxes on line 6b if you can claim the exemptions for your spouse. See instructions for Exemptions on this page. Only the one who had income should sign the return.

Were You Married and Living Apart from Your Spouse?—Some married people can file as Single or as Unmarried Head of Household and ignore the rules for married people filing separate returns. This means that if your spouse itemizes deductions, you do not have to. You can use the standard deduction if you want. And, if you use the standard deduction to figure your tax, you can take the full amount allowed. You are not limited to $1,000. Both you and your spouse can file this way if both meet the tests.

You can file as a single person, and check the block on line 1 for Single, if you meet all of the following tests:

(1) You file a separate return.

(2) You paid more than half the cost to keep up your home for 1974.

(3) Your spouse did not live in your home at any time during 1974.

(4) For over six months of 1974, your home was the main home of your child or stepchild whom you can claim as a dependent.

You can check the block on line 4 for Unmarried Head of Household if your home in test (4), above, was the child's main home for all of 1974.

Were You an Unmarried Head of Household?—There are special tax rates for a person who can meet the tests for being an Unmarried Head of Household. See Tax Tables and Tax Rate Schedule Z.

You may use unmarried head of household tax rates ONLY if on December 31, 1974, you were single or legally separated, AND met test (1) or (2) below.

(1) You paid more than half the cost of keeping up a home which was the main home of your father or mother you can claim as a dependent (you did not have to live with that parent).

(2) You paid more than half the cost of keeping up your home which, except for temporary absences for vacation and school, etc., was lived in all year by one of the following:

(a) Your unmarried child, grandchild, foster child or stepchild. This person did not have to be your dependent.

Note: If you are claiming the filing status of "Unmarried Head of Household" because of an unmarried child, grandchild, foster child or stepchild who is not your dependent, enter that person's name in the space provided on line 4.

(b) Any other person listed in (5)(a) under "Exemptions" on this page, that you can claim as a dependent provided he or she is not your dependent under a multiple support agreement (this is where two or more taxpayers supported the relative and no one gave more than half the support).

Taxpayers married to nonresident aliens can qualify as unmarried head of household under certain circumstances. Consult an IRS office for further information, including information on limited standard deduction and how to figure your tax.

Were You a Widow or Widower with a Dependent Child?—You may still be able to use joint return tax rates for 1974. (See Tax Tables and Tax Rate Schedule Y.)

If your spouse died during 1973 or 1972, you can file a return for 1974 showing only your own income, exemptions, and deductions, and figure the tax at joint return rates if you meet all of the following tests:

(1) You did not remarry during 1974.

(2) You could have filed a joint return with your spouse for the year your spouse died. Whether you actually filed jointly does not matter.

(3) You have a child or stepchild you can claim as a dependent.

(4) Your home was the main home of that child during 1974, except for temporary absences for vacation and school.

Check the block on line 5 ("Widow(er) with dependent child") and give year of death in the parentheses. Do not claim an exemption for your spouse. You can do this only for the year he died.

If your spouse died in 1974 and you did not remarry, read "Were You Married Or Single?" on page 4.

Exemptions ($750 for Each Exemption You Can Take)

Note: If you take your tax from Tax Tables 1-12, do not take a separate deduction for exemptions. The deduction has already been allowed in the tax tables.

Lines 6a and 6b—You and Your Spouse.

For You.—You can always take one exemption for yourself. Take two exemptions if you were blind, or are 65 or older. Take three if you were both blind and 65 or older. Be sure to check all the boxes for the exemptions you can take.

Age and blindness are decided as of December 31. However, if your 65th birthday was on January 1, 1975, you can consider yourself 65 on December 31, 1974.

You can take the age and blindness exemptions for you and your spouse if your spouse does not file a separate return. Do not take these exemptions for your children or other dependents.

Proof of Blindness.—If you are completely blind, attach a statement to this effect. In cases of partial blindness, submit with your return each year a statement from an eye physician or registered optometrist that you: (a) cannot see over 20/200 with glasses or (b) your field of view does not exceed 20 degrees. If, however, this eye condition will never improve beyond the standards in (a) or (b), you may submit a certified opinion to this effect from a skilled examining eye physician. You need to attach this opinion only once to your return. In subsequent years attach only a statement referring to this opinion.

For Your Spouse.—If you are filing a joint return, you can take an exemption for your spouse. If you file a separate return, you can take an exemption for your spouse only if your spouse had no income and was not the dependent of someone else.

The exemptions for your spouse are like your own—one, if your spouse was neither blind nor 65 or older; two, if blind or 65 or older; three, if both blind and 65 or older.

Nonresident Alien Spouse.—You may claim your spouse's exemptions only if your spouse had no income from United States sources and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. Use line 27, to claim exemption for a nonresident alien spouse instead of line 6b. Write your spouse's full name in column (a). Specify whether wife or husband in column (b). Write Nonresi-dent Alien across columns (c) and (d). Use columns (e) and (f) to claim any additional exemptions for age or blindness. Write Blind or 65 or Over, if applicable.

Death of Spouse.—If your spouse died during 1974, check the boxes for the exemptions you could have taken for him on the date of death. See instructions for Death of Taxpayer on page 4.

Lines 6c and 6d—Children and Other Dependents.—Show on line 6c the first names and the total number of your dependent children who lived with you during 1974.

If you claim other dependents, complete columns (a) through (f) on line 27. Enter on line 6d the total number of dependents shown on line 27.

Each person you claim as a dependent has to meet one of the following tests:

(1) Income.—Received less than $750 Income. (If your child was under 19 or was a full-time student, ignore this test. See "Student Dependent.")

(2) Support.—Received over half his support from you or is treated as receiving over half of his support from you under rules for "Children of divorced or separated parents" or "Dependent supported by two or more taxpayers" on page 6. If you file a joint return, the support can be from either spouse. See "Meaning of Support."

(3) Married Dependents.—Did not file a joint return with his spouse.

(4) Citizenship or Residence.—Was a citizen or resident of the U.S., a resident of Canada, Mexico, the Republic of Panama or Canal Zone, or an alien child adopted by and living with a U.S. citizen in a foreign country.

(5) Relationship.—Met one of the following tests:

(a) Was related to you in one of the following ways (if you file jointly, the dependent can be related to either you or your spouse)—

Child	Stepbrother	Daughter-in-law
Stepchild	Stepsister	If related by blood
Mother	Stepfather	Uncle
Father	Mother-in-law	Aunt
Grandparent	Father-in-law	Nephew
Brother	Brother-in-law	Niece
Sister	Sister-in-law
Grandchild	Son-in-law

*Child includes:

Your son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter. A child who lived in your home as a member of your family if placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption.

A foster child who lived in your home as a member of your family for the whole year.

(b) Was a person who lived in your home as a member of your family for the whole year.

Meaning of Support.—Support includes things like food, a place to live, clothes, medical and dental care, and education.

Generally in figuring support, you use the actual cost of these things. But if you provide a place for the dependent to live, include it at fair rental value.

Support DOES NOT include things like purchase of an automobile, furniture or appliances, income taxes and social security taxes, premiums for life insurance or funeral expenses for a deceased dependent.

In figuring who furnished over half of a dependent's support, include the dependent's own money used for his support, even if his money was not taxable. For example, include social security benefits, but if your child was a student, do not include amounts he received as scholarships.

Student Dependent.—Even if your child had income of $750 or more, you can claim him as a dependent if he was a full-time student and met tests (2), (3), and (4) above.

To qualify as a student, your child had to meet one of the following tests:

(1) was enrolled as a full-time student at an educational institution* during any 5 months of 1974, or

(2) took a full-time, on-farm training course during any 5 months of 1974. (The course had to be given by an educational institution* or a State, county, or local government agency.)

*Educational institution means a school that a teacher or staff, courses of study, and body of students in attendance. It includes elementary schools, junior and senior high schools, colleges, universities, technical and mechanical schools. It also includes a night school in which the student is enrolled for the number of hours or classes that is considered full-time attendance at a similar day school. It does not include on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, etc.

For more information, get Publication 532, Filing and Dependency Information for Students and Parents.

Children of Divorced or Separated Parents.—In most cases, the parent who has custody of the child for the greater part of the year can take the exemption. But there are exceptions. The parent who does NOT have custody (or who has the child for the shorter time), may take the exemption if:

1. he contributed at least $600 toward the child's support during 1974, and the decree of divorce or separate maintenance (or a written agreement between the parents) states he can take the exemption, or

2. he contributed $1,200 or more for child support during 1974 (regardless of how many children), and the parent having custody cannot prove that he contributed more than the other parent contributed.

Tax—Credits—Payments

If you check the block between lines 15 and 16, follow these instructions.

If you can be claimed as a dependent on your parent's return and line 15 includes income other than earned income (see next paragraph for definition of earned income), figure your tax by completing Part III of Form 1040. Do NOT use Tax Tables 1-12. An example of this is an unmarried full-time student (or an unmarried person under 19 years of age) who has dividend or interest income on his own return and his parents are filing a return of their own. If you don't itemize your deductions substitute the following instruction for line 45(b): 45(b). If you do not itemize deductions, enter the larger of:

1. 15% of that part of line 15 that is attributable to earned income but not more than $2,000 ($1,000 if married and filing separately), or
2. $1,300 ($550 if married and filing separately), but not more than your earned income included on line 15.

"Earned income" means wages, salaries, professional fees, etc., for personal services rendered. It does not include compensation for your services that was a distribution of earnings and profits other than a reasonable allowance for your work for a corporation. If you were engaged in a business in which both personal services and capital were material income producing factors, consider as earned income for personal services rendered, an amount not in excess of 30% of your share of net profits of the business.

1. However, you may use Tax Tables 1-12 to figure your tax instead of following the substitute instruction for line 45(b) if line 15: (1) includes less than $750 of income other than earned income, or (2) is less than $1,657 ($4,334 if married filing separately).

Line 16—Tax

To Figure Your Tax If You Take the Standard Deduction and the Above Instruction Isn't Applicable

If line 15 is under $10,000, find your tax in Tax Tables 1-12. The standard deduction has been allowed in these tables. Also, the deduction for the exemptions you claimed has already been taken in these tables. Enter the tax on line 16.

If line 15 is $10,000 or more, fill in lines 44 through 48. (Your standard deduction goes on line 45.) Use Tax Rate Schedule X, Y, or Z to figure your tax. Enter the tax on line 16.

To Figure Your Tax If You Itemize Deductions

Fill in Schedule A and enter your total deductions on line 45. Fill in lines 44, 46, 47, and 48. Use Tax Rate Schedule X, Y, or Z to figure your tax. Enter the tax on line 16.¹

¹ Include in the amount on line 16 any partial tax from Form 4970, Tax on Accumulation Distribution of Trusts, or Form 4972, Special 10-Year Averaging Method, which may be used by recipients of lump-sum distributions from qualified employees' trusts or annuity plans.

Other Ways to Figure Your Tax

Schedule G, Income Averaging—It may be advantageous to use the "averaging method" if after subtracting $3,000 from your 1974 taxable income (line 48), the balance is over 30 percent of the total of your taxable income for the last four years (1970 through 1973). If you use this method, fill in Schedule G. For more information, get Publication 509, Computing Your Tax Under the Income Averaging Method.

Schedule D, Alternative Tax—It may be advantageous to use the alternative tax if you have a net long-term capital gain, or if your net long-term capital gain was more than your net short-term capital loss. See Alternative Tax Computation on Schedule D. If you use this method, fill in Schedule D.

Form 4726, Maximum Tax on Earned Income—The tax on earned taxable income is limited to a maximum rate of 50 percent. Get Form 4726 for more information if your earned taxable income was over:

$38,000 and you are single,
$52,000 and you are married filing jointly or are a widow(er) with dependent child, or $38,000 and you claim unmarried head of household status.

Line 21a—Federal Income Tax Withheld—Enter the total income tax withheld as shown on your Forms W-2 or W-2P.

Line 21b—Estimated Tax Payments—Fill in on this line any payments you made on your estimated Federal income tax for 1974.

If you and your spouse filed a joint declaration of estimated tax for 1974 but decided to file separate income tax returns for 1974, either of you can claim all the estimated tax paid. Or, you can each claim part in whatever amounts you agree to. Be sure to show the social security numbers of both on both returns.

If you and your spouse filed separate estimated tax declarations for 1974 but decided to file a joint income tax return for 1974, enter on this line the total of the amounts paid on your separate declarations. Be sure to show both social security numbers on your joint return.

Follow the above instructions even if your spouse died.

Line 21c—Extension of Time to File 1974 Return—If you filed an application to request an automatic 2-month extension of time to file Form 1040 for 1974, enter the amount paid with Form 4868 on this line.

Line 22—Special Note for Beneficiary of a Trust—If you have a tax credit because of the "throwback" rule, include the credit in your total for line 22 (see Form 4970). On the dotted line to the left of the line 22 entry space, write "Throwback credit," and show the amount.

Line 23—Balance Due—In most cases, people who have income tax withheld from their wages will find that the amount withheld will be fairly close to the tax for the year. Sometimes it is not, and this is more likely to happen if both you and your spouse worked.

If you find that you need more income tax withheld for 1975, you can file a new allowance certificate, Form W-4, with your employer and claim fewer allowances. Or you can ask him to withhold more money. If you prefer, you can file a Declaration of Estimated Tax on Form 1040-ES and make installment payments. For more information, get Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax.

Penalties and Interest

Avoid penalties and interest by correctly filing and paying tax when due. The law provides a penalty of from 5 percent to 25 percent of the tax for late filing unless you can show reasonable cause for the delay. If you file a return late, send a full explanation with the return.

Penalties are also provided for late payment of tax unless you can show reasonable cause for the delay.

Taxes Not Paid when Due—The penalty for failure to pay taxes when due is ½ of 1 percent of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month it remains unpaid—up to 25 percent of the unpaid amount. The penalty applies to any unpaid tax shown on a return. It also applies to any portion of additional tax shown on a bill if it is not paid within 10 days from the date of the bill. This penalty is in addition to the 6 percent interest charge on late payments.

Severe penalties are provided for willful failure to pay tax, willful failure to file a return, and for filing a false or fraudulent return.

Penalty for Not Paying Enough Tax During the Year—Add lines 58, 59, 60 and 63. Subtract this total from line 20 and call the difference total A. Add lines 63, 21c (unless extension is filed) and tax is paid before January 31, 1975) and 64. Subtract this total from line 22 and call the difference total B.

If total B is less than 80 percent (66½ percent for farmers and fishermen) of total A, you may be liable unless you meet one or more of the exceptions explained on Form 2210 (Form 2210F for farmers and fishermen). Attach this form or a statement to your return to show how you figured the penalty or which exceptions you believe you meet.

If you owe a penalty, check the box between lines 23 and 24, and show the amount in the bottom margin on page 1 of Form 1040 and write "Penalty—estimated tax." If you owe tax on line 23, include the penalty amount in with your total. Or, if you are due a refund, subtract the penalty amount from overpayment on line 24.

Line 26—Overpayments Credited to 1975 Estimated Tax—We will apply amounts you want credited to estimated tax to the account under your social security number, unless you attach a request to apply it to your spouse's account. The request should include the social security number of your spouse if it is not shown on the return.

Declaration of Estimated Tax

Citizens of the United States or residents of the United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Guam and American Samoa shall make a declaration of estimated tax for their total estimated tax is $100 or more and they:

(1) Can reasonably expect to receive more than $500 from sources other than wages subject to withholding; or,

(2) Can reasonably expect gross income to exceed—

(a) $20,000 for a single individual, a head of a household, or a widow or widower entitled to the special tax rates;

(b) $20,000 for a married individual entitled to file a joint declaration with spouse, but only if the spouse has not received wages for the taxable year;

(c) $20,000 for a married individual living apart from his spouse as described on page 5;

(d) $10,000 for a married individual entitled to file a joint declaration with spouse, but only if both spouses received wages for the taxable year, or;

(e) $5,000 for a married individual not entitled to file a joint declaration with his spouse.

See Form 1040-ES for details.

Instructions for Page 2 of Form 1040PART I.—Income Other Than Wages, Dividends, and Interest*Miscellaneous Income

Line 33—Fully Taxable Pensions and Annuities—See Instructions for Schedule E for information on pensions and annuities.

Use this line to report: (1) Pensions and annuities if you paid no part of their cost. (2) Military retirement pay from Form W-2. (3) Amounts received as annuity under the special rule (see Instructions for Schedule E) if you recovered your entire cost before January 1, 1974.

A disability pension may also qualify for the sick pay exclusion.

For information on how to figure your exclusion, get Form 2440 and Publication 522, Adjustments to Income for Sick Pay.

Enter the amount of your sick pay exclusion shown on Forms W-2 and W-2P. If not shown on Form W-2 or W-2P, attach Form 2440 (or a statement showing how you figured the exclusion, when you were absent, regular weekly rate of pay, and whether you were in the hospital).

Line 34—50% of Capital Gain Distributions—If you do not need Schedule D to report any other gains or losses or to figure the alternative tax, do not fill in that schedule. Instead, show 50% of your capital gain distributions here.

Line 35—State Income Tax Refunds—Show only that part of refund of State income tax attributable to itemized deductions taken in a prior year that resulted in a Federal tax benefit.

Line 36—Alimony Received—Show amounts you received as alimony or separate maintenance.

Line 37—Other—Use this line to report and tell the source of any income you cannot find a place for on your return or other schedules. Include prizes, awards, amounts you recovered for bad debts, or other items that reduced your tax in a prior year.

Also report gross lottery and gambling winnings. You must report the gross winnings as income on line 37. Lottery and gambling losses can be taken as an itemized deduction only on Schedule A. However, such losses are limited to the amount of winnings reported.

Generally, self-employment income must be reported on Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040). However, if you received self-employment income such as directors' fees and you did not incur any expenses with respect to this income, you may enter the total amounts received here and on Schedule SE (Form 1040), line 5(e).

Net Operating Loss—If you lost money on a business or trade in 1974, you can subtract the loss from your 1974 income. (The loss can also be from a personal casualty or theft loss or from selling or disposing of real or depreciable property used in your trade or business.)

If your losses were more than your income, the difference may result in a "net operating loss." Generally, you can use it to reduce your income for the three years before 1974 and the five years after. This means you have to carry the loss back to 1971 and then bring any remaining loss forward to 1972, 1973, and 1975 through 1979. If you are due a refund from the "carryback," you may use Form 1045 to get a quick refund.

If you had a loss in a prior year to carry forward to 1974, enter it as a "minus" figure on line 37. Attach a separate sheet showing how you figured the amount.

(1) Travel and Transportation—You can deduct bus, taxi, plane, or train fares or the cost of using your car in your work.

(2) Meals and Lodging—You can deduct these if you were temporarily away on business at least overnight from the general area of your main place of work. You cannot deduct the cost of meals on daily trips where you did not sleep or rest.

(3) Outside Salesman—In addition to the above, an outside salesman can generally deduct other expenses necessary in sales work. For example, selling expenses, stationery, and postage. An outside salesman is one who does all his selling away from his employer's place of business. If your main duties are service and delivery, such as a milk driver-salesman, you are not considered an outside salesman.

(4) Other Business Expenses—If you claim deductions on Schedule A, you can also deduct other business expenses under the heading "Miscellaneous deductions." Examples of these expenses are dues to unions and professional organizations and the cost of tools, materials, etc., that your employer did not pay for.

If you claim a deduction for business expenses, attach Form 2106 or a statement showing the following: (1) The total of all amounts received from or charged to your employer and nature of your occupation. (2) The amount of your business expenses broken down into broad subjects. (3) The number of days away from home on business.

Even if you do not claim a deduction for your business expenses, you must attach the above information to your return unless you were required to, and did make a satisfactory accounting of them to your employer.

You are considered to have made a satisfactory accounting if:

(1) You received either a daily allowance of no more than $44 instead of actual living expenses or the maximum per diem rate authorized to be paid by the Federal Government in the locality in which the travel is performed, or a mileage allowance of no more than 15 cents a mile. However, an employer may grant an additional allowance for parking fees and tolls attributable to the traveling and transportation expenses as separate items.

(2) Your expenses were the type necessary to carry out your employer's trade or business, and you gave him proof of the time, place, and business reason of the travel.

If you use your own car for business reasons, you can deduct what it cost you for business use. Instead of figuring your actual expenses such as gas, oil, repairs, license tags, insurance, and depreciation, you can take a fixed mileage rate.

This is figured at 15 cents a mile for the first 15,000 miles and 10 cents for each mile over 15,000. Add to this amount your parking fees and tolls.

You can change methods of figuring your cost from year to year. But you cannot change to the fixed mileage rate if you claimed depreciation and did not use the straight line method, or if you claimed additional first-year depreciation.

For more information, get Publication 463, Travel, Entertainment, and Gift Expenses.

Reporting Deductions and Excess Payments.—Report expenses and payments as explained below.

(1) If your employer paid you more than you spent, report the difference on line 37, under "Other."

(2) If you spent more than your employer paid you for travel and transportation, meals and lodging, and outside salesman expenses, you can deduct the difference on line 41. If you itemize deductions and had other business expenses your employer did not pay for, you can deduct them under "Miscellaneous deductions" on Schedule A.

(3) If your expenses equaled the payments you received (or were more than the payments but you do not want to claim a deduction for the difference), write on the bottom margin of page 2, Form 1040, "Employer payments were not more than my business expenses."

Note: If your Form W-2 includes amounts your employer paid you for business expenses, attach Form 2106 or a statement. (See Instructions for Deductible Expenses and Excess Payments.) Include your total expense on line 41.

Line 42—Payments as a Self-Employed Person to a Retirement Plan.—Solo proprietors who have Keogh (H.R. 10) plans should file a return, Form 4848A, for each Keogh plan. Do not attach Form 4848A to your Form 1040.

Partners are not required to file returns for Keogh plans in which they participate. However, partnerships are responsible for filing either Form 4848 or 4848A to report on Keogh plans.

PART IV.—Credits

Line 49—Retirement Income Credit.—See instructions for Schedule R.

Line 50—Investment Credit.—For exceptions and conditions under which you can take an investment credit, get Form 3468.

Line 51—Foreign Tax Credit.—You can claim credit for income tax payments to a foreign country or U.S. possession only if you itemize deductions. For more information, get Form 1116.

Line 52—Credit for Contributions to Candidates for Public Office.—You may claim a tax credit here or an itemized deduction on Schedule A, line 33, but you cannot claim both, for political contributions paid. Publication 585, Voluntary Tax Methods to Help Finance Political Campaigns, explains the circumstances under which a deduction or credit for a contribution is more advantageous.

If you elect to claim a credit, the amount of the credit is one-half of the political contributions paid, but not more than $12.50 ($25 if married and filing a joint return). This credit may not exceed the tax on lines 49, 50, and 51. Make a side calculation before you enter the credit here.

Definitions

"Political contributions" means a contribution or gift of money to—

(1) A person who is a candidate for nomination or election to any Federal, State, or local elective public office in any primary, general, or special election, for his use to further his candidacy.

(2) Any group organized and operated exclusively to support the nomination or election of one or more candidates seeking Federal, State, or local public office, for use by that group to further its purposes.

(3) The national committee of a national political party.

(4) The State committee of a national political party as designated by the State committee of that party.

(5) A local committee of a national political party as designated by the State committee of that party.

"Candidate" means a person who has publicly announced candidacy for nomination or election to Federal, State, or local elective public office and meets the legal qualifications to hold the office.

"National political party" means:

(1) A political party presenting candidates or electors for President or Vice President on the official ballot of ten or more States during an election year.

(2) In the case of contributions made during any other taxable year of the taxpayer, a political party that met the qualifications described in the preceding paragraph (1) in the last Presidential election.

"State" means the States and the District of Columbia.

"Local" means a political subdivision or the total of subdivisions of a State or part of it.

Line 53—Credit for Wages Paid or Incurred in Work Incentive (WIN) Program.—Employers may claim a credit of 20% of the salaries and wages paid or incurred to employees hired under a Work Incentive (WIN) Program. The credit is allowed for the salaries and wages paid or incurred for the first 12 months of employment. See Form 4874.

PART V.—Other Taxes

Line 54—Self-employment Tax.—Enter amount shown on Schedule SE, line 20.

Line 55—Tax from Recomputing Prior Year Investment Credit.—Enter the difference between the credit taken in a prior year and the credit you refunded due to disposition of the property early. Attach Form 4255.

Line 57—Tax from Recomputing a Prior Year Work Incentive (WIN) Credit.—If a WIN employee is dismissed before the end of the first 12 months of employment or during the following 12 calendar months, you must repay (with certain exceptions) any tax credit previously taken on the salaries and wages paid or incurred to that employee. See Form 4874.

The tax from recomputing a prior year work incentive credit may not be offset against the current year's work incentive credit.

Line 58—Minimum Tax.—If you have items of tax preference (accelerated depreciation, stock options, long-term capital gains, etc.) of more than $30,000 ($15,000 if married filing separately), attach Form 4625 even if there is no minimum tax due.

Lines 59 and 60—Tax on Tip Income.—If you received tips you failed to report to your employer, or if your wages were not enough for him to withhold social security or railroad retirement tax, you must pay these taxes with your Form 1040.

The Form W-2 your employer gives you will show any social security tax you owe on tips you reported to him. Enter that amount on line 60.

For tips you did not report but must pay social security tax on, attach Form 4137.

Enter the tax on line 59. For tips you have to pay railroad retirement tax on, contact your nearest Railroad Retirement Board office for information. Include the tax on line 59. On the dotted line to the left, write "RR tax on tips."

Be sure all your tips are included as income on Form 1040, line 9.

PART VI.—Other Payments

Line 62—Excess Social Security Tax Withheld—More Than One Employer.—If you had more than one employer in 1974 and together they paid you more than $13,200 in wages, too much social security (FICA) tax may have been taken out of your wages. If too much was withheld, you can take credit for it against your income tax. Follow the steps below to figure your credit. If you are filing a joint return, you have to figure this separately for you and your spouse.

Step 1. (a) Add all social security (FICA) tax withheld by employers from your wages as shown on all Forms W-2 for 1974.

Caution: Do not include more than $772.20 for any employer. (See note that follows.) Enter the total here $

(b) Add all uncollected tax on tips, if any, as shown on all Forms W-2 for 1974. Enter the total here $

Step 2. Add (a) and (b) $

Step 3. Subtract $772.20

Step 4. Enter this amount on Form 1040, line 62 $

Note: If any employer took out more than $772.20 for social security tax, ask him to refund the excess amount owed you. You cannot take credit for it on your return.

Line 63—Credit for Federal Taxes on Specified Fuels, Nonhighway Gasoline and Lubricating Oil.—Enter on this line any tax credit you can take for:

(1) Gasoline used—

(a) on a farm for farming use.
(b) in vehicles and machines used off the highway, such as in boats and, generally, in commercial aircraft.

(c) in vehicles furnishing certain public transportation by land.

(2) Lubricating oil used for any purpose other than in a highway motor vehicle.

(3) Special fuels used—
(a) on a farm for farming use.
(b) in vehicles furnishing certain public transportation by land.

(c) generally, in commercial aviation or under other conditions not subject to tax.

Attach Form 4136. For more information, get Publication 225, Farmer's Tax Guide, or Publication 378, Federal Fuel Tax Credit or Refund for Nonhighway and Transit Users.

Line 64—Credit for Taxes Paid by Regulated Investment Companies.—Enter credit here. Attach Copy B of Form 2439.

Do You Have an Account in a Foreign Country?—Read the question after line 65 and check the "Yes" or "No" block. If you checked the "Yes" block, attach Form 4683. Check "Yes", if you own more than 50 percent of the stock in any corporation that owns one or more foreign bank accounts.

Instructions for Schedule F (Form 1040)

Employer Identification Number

An employer identification number is not needed unless you were required to file an excise, alcohol, tobacco, firearms, or employment tax return.

Cash Receipts and

Disbursements Method of Reporting

Include the following in income:

(1) Profits received from the sale of livestock and other items bought for resale.

(2) Cash and the value of merchandise or other property received from the sale of livestock and produce raised during 1974 or earlier years.

(3) Other farm income.

Your expenses are the amounts you paid during 1974, plus deductions such as depreciation.

You can elect to report crop insurance proceeds in income in the taxable year following the taxable year of destruction or damage if you can establish that it is your practice to report income from such crops in a following taxable year. For more information, contact any Internal Revenue Service office, or get Publication 225, Farmer's Tax Guide.

Accrual Method of Reporting

The gross profits are figured as indicated in the summary of income and deductions on page 2 of Schedule F. Farm expenses are the actual expenses incurred during 1974, whether you paid them or not. You can value inventories according to the "farm-price method," which provides for the valuation of inventories at market price less direct cost of disposition, or you can use other methods. Farmers raising livestock can value their inventories of animals according to either the "farm-price method" or the "unit-livestock-price method."

Income

Generally, you should report all farm income in Schedule F. However, if you received rental income based on farm production or if you received crop shares based on the renting of all or part of your crop land on a crop share basis, and you did not materially participate in operating the farm, report such income on Form 4835, Farm Rental Income and Expense (such income is not subject to self-employment tax) and Schedule E. If you materially participated in the operation of a farm, the rental income you received is subject to self-employment tax and should be reported in Schedule F. Note.—To determine whether you participated materially in such farm management or production, do not consider the activities of any agent who acted for you.

Under both the cash and the accrual methods of reporting, you should report crop share rentals received in the year in which you convert them to money or its equivalent.

Report sales, exchanges, or involuntary conversions of certain trade or business property on Form 4797, Supplemental Schedule of Gains and Losses.

Anything of value received instead of cash, such as groceries in exchange for produce, must be treated as income to the extent of its market value. The value of farm produce that you and your family used need not be reported as income, but expenses incurred in raising such produce must not be claimed as deductions. Include recoveries from insurance on growing crops. ("Cash method" taxpayers, see Cash Receipts and Disbursements Method of Reporting.)

Cooperative Allocations, Dividends and Advances

Also include in farm income: (1) unit retain allocation received from cooperatives in money and qualified per-unit retain certificates (to the extent of stated dollar amounts), and (2) patronage dividends received from cooperatives in money and qualified written notices of allocation (to the extent of stated dollar amount).

Patronage dividends received in property other than written notices of allocation are includable in farm income to the extent of fair market value.

Include in farm income, Schedule F, line 21, nonpatronage distributions received from farmers' cooperative exempt from tax under section 521.

Patronage dividends are excludable from your gross income if directly attributable to: (1) the purchase of personal, living, or family items; or (2) the purchase of capital assets, or depreciable property used in your business, but only where the basis of the items purchased is adjusted downward by the amount of the dividends excluded from income.

Cash advances received from marketing cooperatives you do business with are includable in farm income.

See Publication 225 for detailed instructions on how and when to report the receipt and redemption of nonqualified certificates and nonqualified written notices, and the receipt of patronage dividends received on purchase of assets and nonbusiness purchases.

Federal Gasoline Tax Credit

If you use the "cash method," enter in Part I, line 24 any Federal gasoline tax claimed as a credit on Form 1040 for 1973. If you use the "accrual method," enter in Part V, line 65 any Federal gasoline tax you claim as a credit on Form 1040 for 1974.

Agricultural Program Payments

In Cash.—Enter the total amount of price support payments, diversion payments, and cost share payments received in cash (sight drafts).

In Materials and Services.—If you received benefits in the form of materials, such as fertilizer or lime, or in the form of services, such as grading or the construction of dams, enter the total amount paid by the Department of Agriculture to the vendor or contractor.

Commodity Credit Corporation Loans

If commodities are pledged as security for a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation, income is not considered received until the commodities are delivered or forfeited to the Corporation, unless an election is made to include the loan in income when received. If you made this election or delivered or forfeited this pledged commodity, enter the amount received on this line. In the case of an election, attach to your return a statement showing details of the loan. You must continue to report similar loans as income until you receive permission from the Commissioner to change your method of accounting.

Commodity Futures.—Purchase or sales contracts entered into solely for protection against price fluctuations are a form of business insurance and are considered hedges. Any profit realized is ordinary income and is entered on Schedule F, line 26. If a loss is sustained from a closed futures contract, it is deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense, and is shown as a negative figure on Schedule F, line 26. Purchase or sales contracts are not true hedges where they offset losses already sustained. Commodity futures contracts entered into with the hope of making a profit on the contract itself through favorable price fluctuation are considered speculation and these transactions are shown on Schedule D, Form 1040.

Expenses and Other Deductions

Hired Labor.—You can deduct amounts paid for farm labor. Do not deduct the value of your own labor or that of your family. Deduct only that part of the board which is purchased for hired labor. The value of products furnished by the farm and used in the board of hired labor is not deductible. Do not deduct amounts paid to those who did household work except to the extent their services are used in boarding and otherwise caring for farm laborers.

Repairs and Maintenance.—You can deduct amounts paid for repairs and maintenance of farm buildings (except your dwelling), farm machinery and equipment, and the cost of ordinary tools of short life or small cost, such as shovels, rakes, etc. Include in this deduction the total amount of repairs from Form 4832.

Rent of Farm, Part of Farm, or Pasture.—You can deduct rent paid in cash. If you are a tenant farmer paying rent to your landlord in the form of crops raised on the farm under a crop share agreement, you cannot deduct as rent the value of the crop, but you can deduct amounts paid in raising the crop.

Fertilizers, Lime, etc.—These can be either capitalized or deducted as an expense.

Taxes.—You can deduct State and local taxes. Do not deduct Federal income taxes; estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes; nor taxes assessed for any improvement or betterment. Do not deduct taxes on your dwelling or household property and other taxes not related to the business of farming.

Conservation Expenses.—You can deduct certain amounts spent (including any amount paid on an assessment levied by a soil or water conservation or drainage district to recover the amount the district spent) for soil or water conservation and the prevention of erosion on land you use.

The allowable deduction for any one year cannot exceed 25 percent of your gross income from farming (excluding certain gains from sales of assets such as farm machinery or from the disposition of land). But any excess can be carried over to the following years with the same limit applying to those years. See Publication 225.

Land Clearing.—You can deduct amounts spent for clearing land to make it suitable for farming. This deduction cannot be more than 25 percent of taxable income from farming, or $5,000, whichever is less.

Location of farm(s) and number of acres in each farm

Purpose.—This form is designed to report farm rental income based on crops or livestock produced by the tenant, where the landowner (or sub-lessor) does not materially participate in the operation or management of the farm.

Under both the cash and the accrual methods of reporting, you should report livestock or crop share rentals received in the year in which you convert them to money or its equivalent. Reg. 1.61-4(a) and (b).

Note: (1) Landowners (or sub-lessors) must not use this form to report cash rent received for pasture, or farm land, where the amount is based on a flat charge. (Report directly on Schedule E, Form 1040.) (2) If you report both farm rental income on line 22 of this form and cash rental income from farm property in Schedule E, Form 1040, you need not prorate the farm expenses attributable to this farm rental income. Instead, you may report the total farm rental expenses in Part II of this form.

(3) Tenants must not use this form to report farm income and expenses. (Individuals use Schedule F, Form 1040.)

(4) The instructions for Schedule F, Form 1040, are applicable for the income and deduction items in Part I and Part II.

(Do not include property you and your family occupy as a dwelling, its furnishings, and other items used for personal purposes.)

Note: If depreciation is computed by using the Class Life (ADR) System for assets placed in service after December 31, 1970, or the Guideline Class Life System for assets placed in service before January 1, 1971, you must file Form 4832 (Class Life (ADR) System) or Form 5006 (Guideline Class Life System). Except as otherwise expressly provided in income tax regulations sections 1.167(a)-11(b)(5)(v) and 1.167(a)-12, the provisions of Revenue Procedures 62-21 and 65-13 are not applicable for taxable years ending after December 31, 1970. ★ U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1974-0-548-297

1974 Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Instructions for Form 1065 U.S. Partnership Return

The term "partnership" includes a limited partnership, syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, through or by which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code, a corporation, trust, estate, or sole proprietorship. The term "partner" means a member of a partnership.

(References are to the Internal Revenue Code)

General Instructions

Note: If the partnership's employer identification number is written on the label or if the partnership did not receive a label, show the correct number in Item D on page 1. If the partnership does not have a number you must apply for one on Form SS-4, available at any Social Security Administration or Internal Revenue Service office.

A. Who must file.—Every partnership (see general instruction K(1) for exceptions) engaged in a trade or business or having income from sources within the United States must file Form 1065. It must do so whether or not its principal place of business is outside the United States or all its members are nonresident aliens. If you file for a syndicate, pool, joint venture, or similar group, attach to the return a copy of the agreement and all amendments, unless you have previously filed a copy.

File only one return for each partnership. Mark "duplicate copy" on each copy you give to an individual partner.

B. Time and place for filing.—A resident partnership must file Form 1065 on or before the 15th day of the 4th month following the close of the taxable year. A foreign partnership whose partners are nonresident aliens must file its return on or before the 15th day of the 6th month following the close of the taxable year.

If the partnership's principal place of business or principal office or agency is located in Rounding off to whole-dollar amounts.—You may show the money items on your return and accompanying schedules as whole-dollar amounts. To do so eliminate any amount less than 50 cents and increase any amount from 50 cents through 99 cents to the next higher dollar.

H. Items exempt from tax.—Items exempt from tax are listed in sections 101 through 122. For example:

(1) Interest on government obligations.—The interest on obligations of a State, or U.S. possession, any of their political subdivisions, or the District of Columbia, is exempt subject to the exceptions described in section 103.

(2) Proceeds of insurance policies.—In general, the proceeds of life insurance policies paid to the partnership on the death of a partner are exempt. If the insurer holds any of the proceeds under an agreement to pay interest, the interest is taxable.

(3) Income from Improvements by lessee.—Income other than rent derived by a lessor of real property upon the termination of a lease, representing the value of such property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by the lessee, is excludable unless it represents a liquidation in kind of leasehold.

I. Information returns.—Every partnership shall file information returns if it makes, in the course of its trade or business during the calendar year, payments of interest (other than under the $10 rule), rents, commissions, or other fixed or determinable income totaling $600 or more.

For example, if the partnership makes interest payments totaling $10 or more on bank deposits, corporate bonds, stockholder's accounts, and savings and loan association accounts, it must file Form 1099-INT.

Use Form 1096 to summarize and transmit information returns to your Internal Revenue Service Center. For more information about filing information returns and exceptions therefrom, see the instructions for Form 1096.

E. Signature.—One partner must sign the return. If a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee is in control of the organization's property or business, he must sign the return.

Any person, firm, or corporation preparing a partnership return for compensation must also sign to verify the return. However, a verifying signature is not required if the return is prepared by a regular, full-time partnership employee, such as a clerk, secretary, or bookkeeper. If a firm or corporation prepares the return, it should be signed in the name of the firm or corporation.

F. Penalties.—The law provides severe penalties for willful failure to file a return on time and for willful attempt to evade or defeat payment of any tax due.

G. Accounting methods.—Compute ordinary income by the accounting method regularly used in maintaining the partnership's books and records. The method should clearly reflect income. (See section 446.) Unless the law specifically permits, a taxpayer may not change the accounting method used to report income in prior years (for income as a whole or for any material item), without first getting consent on Form 3115. Application for Change in Accounting Method.

(2) Generally, the partnership shall make the elections affecting the computation of taxable income from its operations. Examples of such elections are the accounting method employed, depreciation methods, etc. However, certain elections are made by a partner separately on his individual income tax return rather than by the partnership. These elections are made under: section 901, relating to foreign tax credit; section 617, relating to deduction and recapture of certain mining exploration expenditures, paid or incurred; section 57(c), relating to deferral of net lease, and section 163(d), instead of on the numbered lines on page 1.

P. Attachments.—You may use attachments to your return if the lines on the form schedules are insufficient for your needs. The attachments must contain all required information, follow the format of the official schedules, and must be attached to the return in the same sequence as the schedules appear on the official forms. If you use an attachment in place of a schedule having a summary line on page 1 of the form, you need not enter the total on the official schedule, but must enter it on page 1.

Q. Information regarding Schedule K-1.—Prepare and give a Schedule K-1 to each partner. It reflects the amounts on Schedule K that are allocated to them. Since all items on Schedule K-1 are not applicable to every partnership, a substitute schedule, listing only applicable items may be submitted for the official Schedule K-1. Identify amounts reported on the substitute by the official line number and letter designation as well as by a sufficient portion of the official line title to identify each amount. In addition, include all information from the official Schedule K-1 that relates to the partnership and partner. Insert the title, "Substitute Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)," and the partnership's taxable year at the top of each substitute.

Specific Instructions

These instructions correspond with line numbers on the first page of the return, and with schedules appearing on its other pages.

1. Gross receipts.—Enter gross receipts or sales from all business operations except those required to be reported in lines 4 through 11.

2. Installation sales.—If under section 453 you use the installation method, attach a schedule showing a separate line for the current year and the three preceding years the following: (a) gross sales; (b) cost of goods sold; (c) gross profits; (d) percentage of gross profits to gross sales; (e) amount collected; and (f) gross profit on amount collected.

Farmer's Income schedule.—For farm income, attach Schedule F (Form 1040). (See Instruction 3.)

3. Cost of goods sold (Schedule A).—If the production, manufacture, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor in the trade or business, inventories of merchandise on hand should be taken at the beginning and end of the taxable year. They may be valued at (a) cost, (b) cost or market, whichever is lower, or (c) any other method approved by the Commissioner. The valuing method you adopt for the first year is controlling, and can be changed only after you get permission from the Commissioner. To apply for a change, file Form 3115 with the Commissioner within 180 days after the beginning of the taxable year in which you want to make the change.

4. Specially allocated items.—Allocate distributive shares of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit items among the partners under the partnership agreement for sharing income or loss generally. If the partners agree, specific items may be allocated among them in a ratio different than that for sharing income or loss generally and such allocations may be recognized under provisions of section 704. For instance, if the net income exclusive of specially allocated items is divided evenly among three partners but some special items are allocated 50 percent to one, 30 percent to another, and 20 percent to the third partner, report the special items on Schedule K, line 16, instead of on the numbered lines on page 1.

5. Cost of operations (where inventories are not an income-determining factor).—If the amount you enter on line 2 includes an amount applicable to cost of operations, complete Schedule A.

6. Ordinary income (loss) from other partnerships, syndicates, etc.—If one partnership, (partnership A) is a partner in another partnership (partnership B), partnership A will enter on this line its distributive share of ordinary income (loss) from B. If the distributive share is a loss, it must be limited to the amount of the adjusted basis of A's interest in partnership B as of the end of partnership B's year in which the loss occurred. If A's taxable year does not coincide with the annual accounting period of partnership B, include in A's return the distributive share of the ordinary income (loss) for the accounting period of partnership B ending within the period for which A's return is filed.

Partnership A will consider its distributive share of other items (see general instruction L (1) through (7)) from partnership B as if such items were realized directly by partnership B or incurred in partnership B. For example, partnership A's distributive share of partnership B's capital gains or (losses) should be reported on Schedule D (Form 1065), lines 2 and 5. As another example, partnership B's distributive share of partnership B's specially allocated ordinary gains or (losses) should be entered on Form 4797, line 8.

7. Nonqualifying dividends.—Nonqualifying dividends are taxable dividends which are included in ordinary income and for which the individual partner is NOT entitled to an exclusion. Such dividends are derived from the following sources:

- (a) Corporations organized under the China Trade Act (section 941);
- (b) Corporations which, for their taxable year in which the distribution is made or for their next preceding taxable year, are

- (i) exempt from tax under section 501 (charitable, etc., organizations) or section 521 (farmers' cooperatives); or
- (ii) corporations to which section 931 (income from sources within U.S. possessions) applies;

- (c) Mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, domestic building and loan associations, domestic savings and loan associations, Federal savings and loan associations, on deposits or withdrawable accounts. Report dividends from these organizations as interest.
- (d) Regulated investment companies, except to the extent designated by the company to be taken into account as a dividend for these purposes.

- (e) Certain real estate investment trusts under sections 856 to 858.
- (f) Foreign corporations, including your share from a controlled foreign corporation.

Qualifying dividends are taxable dividends received from domestic corporations not listed above. See Instructions for Schedule K, line 3.

6. Interest.—Enter total interest from all sources except (a) interest exempt from tax; (b) interest on tax-free covenant bonds.

8. Royalties.—Enter net income (loss) shown on the detailed schedule you attach to the return.

9. Net farm profit (loss).—Enter the net profit (loss) from Schedule F (Form 1040). DO NOT include in this line any amounts reported in Schedule K (Form 1065).

11. Other Income.—Enter any other taxable income and explain its nature in an attached schedule, except those items requiring separate computation (see general instruction L(1) through (7)) which are required to be reported in Schedule K. (See Instructions for Schedule K.) Include taxable income from annuities and insurance proceeds.

Deductions

13. Salaries and wages.—Enter all salaries and wages not included in line 29, except salaries to partners.

14. Payments to partners.—Salaries and interest (guaranteed payments).—In computing ordinary income, take a deduction for payments to a partner for services or the use of capital if the payments are determined without regard to partnership income. Do not include distributions of partnership profits. Allocate the guaranteed payments to the appropriate partners on Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 1.

15. Rent.—Enter rent paid on business property but do not deduct rent for the portion of the dwelling occupied by any partner for personal use.

16. Interest.—Enter interest on all indebtedness incurred for the operation of the trade or business. Payments by a partnership to a partner for the use of capital should be entered on line 14. But interest paid by a partnership to a partner as a result of a transaction in which the partner acts as other than a partner should be entered on this line. (The limitations on deductions for unpaid interest are given in section 267.) A partnership cannot deduct interest expense it incurred on funds borrowed to purchase or carry property held for investment. See instruction on page 5 for line 15, paragraph (e). Although, the partnership can deduct all interest expense on funds it borrowed to purchase or carry rental property subject to a net lease, each partner must take only his distributive share into account in computing his investment interest expense deduction limitation. For further information, see section 163(d), and Form 4932, Investment Interest Expense Deduction.

17. Taxes.—Enter taxes paid on business property or incurred for carrying on business if not reflected in cost of goods sold. Federal import duties and Federal excise and stamp taxes are deductible only if paid or incurred in carrying on a trade or business, or in the production or collection of income, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income. Do not deduct taxes assessed against local benefits tending to increase the value of the property assessed, as for paving, etc. Federal income taxes; estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes; or taxes reported in Schedule K.

18. Bad debts.—Deduct bad debts—(a) When they become wholly or partially worthless, or (b) by reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts. A partnership may select either method on its first return in which a bad debt deduction is taken, but must follow that method for subsequent years unless it received permission to change. Application to change must be made on Form 3115 within 180 days after the beginning of the taxable year for which you want the change. (See Form 1065 Instructions for Schedule D page 4 regarding nonbusiness debts.)

19. Repairs.—Enter the cost of incidental repairs, etc., that do not add to the value or appreciably prolong the life of the repaired property. Expenditures for new buildings, machinery, or for permanent improvements or arrangements that increase the value of the property, are chargeable to capital accounts and may be depreciated or amortized.

Include the total amount of repairs from Form 4832.

20. Depreciation.—A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business or of property held by the taxpayer for the production of income is allowable as a depreciation deduction. (Section 167.) The allowance does not apply to inventories or stock-in-trade nor to land apart from the improvements or physical developments added to it. Include depreciation on leasehold improvements, patents, and copyrights in Schedule J.

21. Adjustments to basis of property:
(a) Additional first-year depreciation.—If you elect to claim the additional first-year allowance under section 179, adjust the basis of the property for the amount of the deduction claimed. (See paragraph (d) under Depreciation Methods.)

22. Salvage value.—Salvage value must be taken into account in determining the depreciation deduction, except under the declining balance method, Class Life (ADR) System, or Guideline Class Life System. In computing the basis on which you may take depreciation for personal property (other than livestock) you need not take into account salvage value that does not exceed 10 percent of the property's cost or other basis. If the salvage value exceeds 10 percent, only the excess need be taken into account. These provisions apply to property acquired after October 16, 1962, having a useful life of three or more years. (See section 167(f).)

Depreciation Methods

The various methods of depreciation you may use:

(a) Straight line.—To compute the deduction, add the improvement cost to the property's cost (or other basis) and deduct the total depreciation allowed or allowable in prior years. Divide the result by the number of years of the asset's useful remaining life. The quotient is the depreciation deduction.

(b) Declining balance.—Apply a uniform rate each year to the remaining cost or other basis of property determined at the beginning of such year without adjustment for salvage value. For property acquired before January 1, 1954, or used property whenever acquired, the rate of depreciation under this method may not exceed one and one-half times the applicable straight-line rate.

(c) Special rules for new assets.—You may depreciate the cost or other basis of a new asset under any of the following methods, provided the asset is tangible, has an estimated useful life of three or more years, and its original use began with the partnership.

(i) Declining balance.—This method may be used with a rate not in excess of twice the applicable straight-line rate.

(ii) Sum of the years-digits.—Compute the deduction for each year by multiplying the cost or other basis of the asset by the number of years of useful life corresponding to the years of the estimated useful life of the asset. In the case of a five-year life, this sum would be 15 ($5+4+3+2+1$). For the first year, fifteen-fifths of the cost would be allowable; for the second year, four-fifths; etc.

(iii) Other methods.—A partnership may use any consistent method that does not result in accumulated allowances at the end of any year greater than the total of the accumulated allowances which would have resulted from the use of the 200 percent declining balance method. This limitation applies only during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property.

(d) Additional first-year depreciation.—A partnership may elect to write off an additional first-year depreciation of 20% of any portion of the cost (before salvage value) of its tangible depreciable property acquired in the taxable year if the asset has a useful life of six years or more from its acquisition date. The additional depreciation is not deductible by the partnership, but each partner will report his pro-rata share in the year regular depreciation with respect to the property deducted by the partnership. The basis of the asset for computing regular depreciation is cost of the asset less the additional allowance and any salvage value taken into account, whether or not the partners deduct the additional depreciation.

Deduction for additional first-year depreciation for each partner may not exceed $2,000 ($4,000 if married and filing a joint return) in the partner's taxable year.

Show the total additional first-year depreciation on Schedule J, line 1, and Schedule K, line 2 and allocate to each partner on Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 2. Each partner must determine the maximum deduction allowable for the additional first-year depreciation by combining his share of the partnership's additional first-year depreciation and the total of his trade or business additional first-year depreciation. An individual must enter the portion of the allowable deduction attributable to his share from a partnership as a deduction from income on Schedule E (Form 1040) Part III; and as a deduction in arriving at farm or nonfarm net self-employment income on the appropriate line of Schedule SE (Form 1040).

(e) New section 1250 property.—Do not use the double declining balance or sum of the years-digits methods except for (1) new residential rental property (from which at least 80 percent of the gross rental income is derived from rental of residential units), (2) other new real property acquired before July 25, 1969, and (3) new real property acquired after July 24, 1969, if construction, acquisition, or permanent financing arrangements under a binding written contract were entered into before July 25, 1969. You may depreciate other new real property acquired after July 24, 1969, only under the straight-line or 150 percent declining balance methods. (See section 167(j).)

(f) Used section 1250 property.—You may depreciate used residential rental property acquired after July 24, 1969, with a useful life of 20 years or more, under the 125 percent declining balance method. For used real property acquired after July 24, 1969, where construction, acquisition, or permanent financing arrangements under a binding written contract were entered into before July 25, 1969, limit depreciation to the 150 percent declining balance method. Depreciate other used real property acquired after July 24, 1969, only under the straight-line method. (See section 167(j).)

(g) Rehabilitation expenditures for low-income rental housing.—You may elect to depreciate property attributable to rehabilitation expenditures for low-income rental housing incurred after July 24, 1969. Claim such depreciation under the straight-line method using a useful life of 60 months. For details see section 167(k).

Class Life (ADR) System and Guideline Class Life System.—If you figure depreciation by using the Class Life (ADR) System for assets placed in service after December 31, 1970, or the Guideline Class Life System for assets placed in service before January 1, 1971, file Form 4832 (Class Life (ADR) System) or Form 5006 (Guideline Class Life System). Except as otherwise expressly provided in income tax regulations, sections 1.167(a)(1), (b)(2)(A) and 1.167(e)-12, the provisions of Revenue Procedures 62-21 and 65-13 are not applicable for taxable years ending after December 31, 1970. For more information, see instructions for Form 4832, Form 5006, and Publication 534, Tax Information on Depreciation.

21. Amortization.—If the partnership elects the deduction for amortization of certain expenditures relating to research and experiment (section 174), trademark and trade name expenditures (section 177), exploration (paid or incurred before September 13, 1966) (section 615), and development (section 616), file a pertinent statement with the return. Do not enter the deductions for amortization of bond premium on this line but include it on Schedule D.

See section 169 for conditions whereby you may amortize the cost of certified pollution control facilities over a five-year period.

Also, see section 188 for conditions whereby you may amortize the cost of property other than capital assets including the sale or exchange of property used in trade or business and involuntary conversions (section 1231), see Form 4797 and related instructions.

22. Depletion.—If you claim a deduction for timber depletion, attach Form T.

23(e). Retirement plans, etc.—Enter deductible contributions made by the partnership for its common-law employees under a qualified pension, profit-sharing, annuity, or bond purchase plan, and compensation under any other deferred payment plan.

Note: Every employer who has adopted a pension, profit-sharing, or other funded deferred compensation plan, regardless of whether or not the plan is qualified under the Internal Revenue Code or if deduction is claimed for the current taxable year, must file Form 4848, Part I, Form 4848A. If the plan is a Keogh Plan, file Form 4848A for each such Keogh Plan. For all other plans the partnership will file Form 4848. In either case, file such form on or before the 15th day of the 5th month following the close of the taxable year. Do not attach either form to the partnership return.

23(b). Employees benefit programs.—Enter the partnership's contributions to employee benefit programs for common-law employees that are not an incidental part of retirement plans included on line 23(a). Include contributions for insurance, health, and welfare programs.

24. Other deductions.—Enter any other authorized deductions for which no space is provided elsewhere on page 1 of the return, exclusive of those items requiring separate computation (see general instruction L (1) through (7)) which are required to be reported in Schedule K. Do not deduct losses incurred in transactions which were neither connected with the trade or business nor entered into for profit. No deduction is allowable for the amount of any item or part of it allocable to a class of exempt income, other than the allowable portion attributable to wholly exempt interest income. Items directly attributable to such exempt income shall be allocated to it, and items directly attributable to any class of taxable income shall be allocated to that taxable income. If an item is attributable both to taxable income and exempt income, allocate a reasonable proportion of it to each.

A partnership receiving any exempt income other than interest income holding any property or engaging in any activity the income from which is exempt shall submit as a part of its return an itemized statement showing (a) the amount of each class of exempt income, and (b) the amount of expense items allocated to each such class (the amount allocated by apportionment being shown separately).

Schedule D—Capital gains and losses.—This schedule provides for the reporting of sales or exchanges of capital assets. Report every sale or exchange of property in detail, even though no gain or loss is indicated. Exceptions are specifically allocated gains and losses entered on Schedule K, line 16, and shown in a separate schedule attached to Form 1065. See Schedule K Instructions for line 16.

For reporting sales or exchanges of property other than capital assets including the sale or exchange of property used in trade or business and involuntary conversions (section 1231), see Form 4797 and related instructions.

Basis.—In most cases, the property's basis is its cost to the partnership. However, if the property was acquired by gift, inheritance, or in some other manner, you must use a basis other than cost and give full details.

Capital assets defined.—The term "capital assets" means property held by the partnership (whether or not connected with the trade or business) but does NOT include—

(a) stock in trade or other property of a kind property includable in the inventory if on hand at the close of the taxable year;

(b) property held by the partnership primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the trade or business;

(c) property used in the trade or business of a character subject to the depreciation allowance provided in section 167;

(d) real property used in the partnership trade or business;

(e) certain certain Government obligations issued at a discount, payable without interest, and maturing at a fixed date not exceeding 1 year from issue date;

(f) certain copyrights, literary, musical, or artistic compositions, letters or memorandums, or similar property; or

(g) accounts and notes receivable acquired in the ordinary course of trade or business for services rendered or from the sale of property referred to in (a) or (b), above.

As to (b), above, the law allows dealers in securities capital gain or loss treatment on certain securities which were clearly identified as being held for investment. Also, certain real property subdivided for sale may be treated as a capital asset. (See sections 1236 and 1237.)

Capital gain distributions.—Report on line 6 as long-term capital gains any amounts a regulated investment company advises you, as a shareholder, are (a) a capital gain dividend, or (b) the partnership's share of the company's undistributed capital gains. (See Schedule K Instructions for line 12.)

Losses on worthless securities.—If any securities which are capital assets become worthless during the taxable year, the loss shall be considered a loss from the sale or exchange of capital assets as of the last day of that taxable year.

Nonbusiness debts.—If a debt, such as a personal loan, becomes totally worthless within the taxable year, consider the loss as loss from the sale or exchange of the tangible or a capital asset held for not more than 6 months. Enter that loss on line 1, column (4) and describe it in column (5). This does not apply to: (a) a debt evidenced by a corporate security with interest coupons or in registered form and (b) a debt acquired in the trade or business.

Collapsible corporations.—Gain from the sale or exchange of stock in a collapsible corporation is not a capital gain. (See section 341.)

"Wash sales" losses.—Losses from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities are not deductible (unless sustained in connection with the partnership trade or business) if, within 30 days before or after the date of the sale or other disposition, the partnership has acquired (by purchase or by an exchange upon which the entire amount of gain or loss was recognized by law) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire, substantially identical stock or securities.

Installment sales.—If you sold personal property for more than $1,000 or real property regardless of amount, you may be eligible to report any gain under the installment method. If (a) there are no payments in the sale year, or (b) the payments in the sale year do not exceed 50% of the selling price. (See section 453.) Such sales must provide for 1 or more payments in each of 2 or more taxable years.

For treatment of a portion of payments as "unstated interest" on deferred payment sales, see section 483.

Schedule K—Partners' shares of income, credits, deductions, etc. Show on this schedule complete information for all members of the partnership, syndicate, group, etc., during any portion of the taxable year. Although the partnership is not subject to income tax, the members are liable for income tax in their separate capacities and are taxable upon their distributive shares of the partnership income, whether distributed or not, and each is required to include his share in his return.

A partner may not claim his distributive share of the partnership loss that is in excess of his basis in the partnership. However, he may claim this excess in later years to the extent his basis increases above zero.

Advise each partner, on Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) of his share of the income, deductions, credits, etc., shown in Schedule K (lines 1 through 17).

Line 1.—Combine the ordinary income (loss) on line 26 with the payments deducted on line 14 that were made to partners for salary (or for withdrawals) and interest for use of capital.

Line 3.—Enter the dividends received from domestic corporations, to which the partner is entitled to an exclusion (section 116) on his individual income tax return. (See instruction 5.)

Line 9.—Enter contributions paid by the partnership within its taxable year. (You must also submit an itemized list of the partnership's charitable contributions.)

Line 10. Expense account allowance. (a) amounts other than compensation received as advances or reimbursements, and (b) amounts paid by or for the partnership for expenses incurred by or on behalf of a partner, including all amounts charged through any type of credit card.

(c) For the taxable year, the amount of gasoline used (A) on a farm for farming purposes, (B) other than as fuel in a highway vehicle, and (C) in vehicles while engaged in furnishing certain public passenger land transportation service; (II) lubricating oil used other than in a highway motor vehicle, and (III) special fuels used (A) on a farm for farming purposes, (B) in vehicles while engaged in furnishing certain public passenger land transportation service, and (C) for nontaxable uses.

It does not include amounts paid for (I) the purchase of goods for resale or use in the business; and (II) incidental expenses, such as the purchase of office supplies for the partnership or local transportation in connection with an errand. The partnership should maintain records to substantiate travel and entertainment expenditures.

Complete Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 10, for the 6 highest paid partners, including limited partners. To determine the partners the information is required for all allowances including such expense account allowances and the partner's share of ordinary income must be added to each partner's compensation. You need not complete Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 10 for any partner for whom the combined amount is less than $25,000.

Line 11.—Enter taxes described in section 901 paid or accrued by the partnership to foreign countries or U.S. possessions.

Line 12.—Enter taxes paid on undistributed capital gains by the Regulated Investment Company. The partnership as a shareholder of a regulated investment company will receive notice on Form 2439 that the company paid tax on undistributed capital gains.

Line 13.—Enter partnership payments to a retirement plan on behalf of partners.

Line 14.—Enter the partnership's investment in certain depreciable property by new and used categories and life years. A partner is allowed a tax credit against his pro rata share of such investment by filing Form 3468. (For information on whether property qualifies for the credit and for other information, see Form 3468.)

When property is disposed of prior to the "life-years category" assigned, notify each partner of the dates purchased and disposed of. The partner must recompute his investment credit using as the useful life the period the property was actually held. In recomputing the credit, the partner must use the life years categories of 0-3 years; 3-5; 5-7; and 7 or more. If the credit taken (including carrybacks and carryovers) exceeds the recomputed credit, the tax for the year of disposition must be increased by the excess. (Individuals, see Schedule A (Form 1040) Instructions.)

(f) The gross profit from the partnership's farm and nonfarm business income that is used under the optional method to determine self-employment income.

Line 16.—Enter any items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit subject to a special allocation under the partnership agreement which differ from the allocation of partnership income or loss.

A partnership that is a partner must include its distributive share of specially allocated ordinary gains or losses from another partnership on Form 4797, line 8.

Line 15.—Enter the partnership's total for each of the applicable items in paragraphs (a) through (f). If you need more space, see general instruction P. Enter each partner's distributive share of these items on Schedule K-1 (Form 1065).

Line 17.—Enter items of income and deductions which enter into the computation of tax preference items. A partner with tax preference items may be required to file Form 4625. See that form for definitions of tax preference items, filing requirements, and tax computation.

Schedule M—Reconciliation of Partners' Capital Accounts.—Show on this schedule what caused the changes in the partners' capital accounts during the taxable year. The amount in column 4 should agree with the amount in Schedule L, column (B), line 19; and the amount in column 9 should agree with the amount in Schedule L, column (D), line 19. If such amounts do not agree, attach an adequate explanation of any difference.

Schedule N—Computation of net earnings (loss) from self-employment.—In determining the amount of net earnings (loss) from self-employment, exclude income and deductions from the following sources:

Interest.—Interest on bonds, debentures, notes, certificates, or other evidences of indebtedness, issued with interest coupons or in registered form by a corporation, government, or political subdivision, unless received in the course of a trade or business as a dealer in stocks or securities.

Real estate rentals.—Rentals from real estate, except rentals received in the course of a trade or business as a real estate dealer.

The following do not constitute rentals from real estate: receipts for the use or occupancy of rooms or other space where services are also rendered to the occupant, such as rooms in hotels; boardings; apartment houses furnishing hotel services; tourist camps; tourist homes; or space in parking lots, warehouses, or storage garages. Include them in determining net earnings (loss) from self-employment.

Optional Methods.—A partner may now use the optional methods of computing his net earnings from self-employment from both farm and nonfarm income on his individual income tax return. See Schedule SE (Form 1040) for instructions and for the computation of net earnings from self-employment.

for recomputing prior year credit, see Form 4874.

(e) The partnership's (i) interest on investment indebtedness and (ii) applicable items of investment (A) income, (B) expenses, and (C) gains and losses from sale or exchange of such investment property. For further information on the above and the special provisions that apply to "out of pocket" expenses and rental income attributable to property subject to net lease, see section 163(d). (Individuals, see Schedule A (Form 1040) Instructions.)

(f) The gross profit from the partnership's farm and nonfarm business income that is used under the optional method to determine self-employment income.

Line 16.—Enter any items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit subject to a special allocation under the partnership agreement which differ from the allocation of partnership income or loss.

A partnership that is a partner must include its distributive share of specially allocated ordinary gains or losses from another partnership on Form 4797, line 8.

Line 15.—Enter the partnership's total for each of the applicable items in paragraphs (a) through (f). If you need more space, see general instruction P. Enter each partner's distributive share of these items on Schedule K-1 (Form 1065).

Line 17.—Enter items of income and deductions which enter into the computation of tax preference items. A partner with tax preference items may be required to file Form 4625. See that form for definitions of tax preference items, filing requirements, and tax computation.

Schedule M—Reconciliation of Partners' Capital Accounts.—Show on this schedule what caused the changes in the partners' capital accounts during the taxable year. The amount in column 4 should agree with the amount in Schedule L, column (B), line 19; and the amount in column 9 should agree with the amount in Schedule L, column (D), line 19. If such amounts do not agree, attach an adequate explanation of any difference.

Schedule N—Computation of net earnings (loss) from self-employment.—In determining the amount of net earnings (loss) from self-employment, exclude income and deductions from the following sources:

Interest.—Interest on bonds, debentures, notes, certificates, or other evidences of indebtedness, issued with interest coupons or in registered form by a corporation, government, or political subdivision, unless received in the course of a trade or business as a dealer in stocks or securities.

Real estate rentals.—Rentals from real estate, except rentals received in the course of a trade or business as a real estate dealer.

The following do not constitute rentals from real estate: receipts for the use or occupancy of rooms or other space where services are also rendered to the occupant, such as rooms in hotels; boardings; apartment houses furnishing hotel services; tourist camps; tourist homes; or space in parking lots, warehouses, or storage garages. Include them in determining net earnings (loss) from self-employment.

Optional Methods.—A partner may now use the optional methods of computing his net earnings from self-employment from both farm and nonfarm income on his individual income tax return. See Schedule SE (Form 1040) for instructions and for the computation of net earnings from self-employment.

Codes for Principal Business Activity and Principal Product or Service

These industry titles and definitions, for use on Form 1065 partnership returns, are based on the 1972 revised Standard Industrial Classification system developed by the Office of Management and Budget, Executive Office of the President, to classify enterprises and establishments by type of activity in which engaged.
